Genuine Mediumship: the Invisible Powers Swami Bhakta Vishita,2012-06-07 As a matter of fact, as all the advanced students and teachers of the occult doctrine know full well, we have no direct knowledge whatsoever of anything that is outside of the realm of nature and of Nature's laws. It is true that we may by an act of faith profess to believe in powers and beings entirely apart from the great realm of Nature. In fact, most persons do believe in such powers and beings in connection with their formal religion, but their belief is entirely within the category of Faith and is not even pretended to be based upon actual experience and phenomenal manifestation. The moment that there appears any manifestation which is possible of being known to or experienced by the human senses, ordinary or extraordinary, that moment the phenomena and the immediate cause thereof must be regarded as being properly classed in the category of natural. This is true not only of such phenomena as are perceived by means of our ordinary five senses, but also of those which are perceptible only to the highest powers of perception or higher senses which are latent in all human beings but which are unfolded only in the case of a comparatively few individuals of the race
