Lebon, 1952 Pearson eText Contemporary Human Geography Access Card James M. Rubenstein, 2018-06-29 Your map to human geography. Contemporary Human Geography is a modular springboard into essential human and cultural geography concepts designed for the modern geography reader. This brief, innovative text explores contemporary human geography with a bold visual style, with topics organized into self-contained two-page spreads. Rubenstein's efficient writing presents information clearly without sacrificing high-quality content. The 4th Edition offers new MapMaster 2.0, which is inspired by GIS and leverages recent data from the US Census Bureau, UN, CIA, World Bank, PRB, NOAA, NASA, USGS, and more. It enables readers to analyze and critically think about data through the visualization of mapping. This can help individuals connect critical global issues to their local geography, addressing key concepts. With thousands of maps to explore and the ability to upload their own data, readers can fully engage with the content. For courses in human geography, Pearson eText allows educators to easily share their own notes with students so they see the connection between their reading and what they learn in class, motivating them to keep reading and keep learning. Portable access lets students study on the go, even offline. And student usage analytics offer insight into how students use the eText, helping educators tailor their instruction. NOTE: This ISBN is for the Pearson eText access card. For students purchasing this product from an online retailer, Pearson eText is a fully digital delivery of Pearson content and should only be purchased when required by your instructor. In addition to your purchase, you will need a course invite link provided by your instructor to register for and use Pearson eText. An Introduction to Human Geography, 1953 Human Geography Reader (First Edition) Katherine Nashleanas, 2013-05-23 Exploring Human Geography Stephen Daniels, Roger Lee, 2014-05-01 A lively and stimulating resource for all first-year students of human geography, this introductory Reader comprises key published writings from the main fields of human geography. Because the subject is both broad and necessarily only loosely defined, a principal aim of this book is to present a view of the subject which is theoretically informed and yet recognises that any view is partial, contingent, and subject to change. The extracts selected are accessible and raise issues of method and theory as well as fact. The editors have chosen articles that not only represent main currents in the present flow of academic geography but which are also responsive to developments outside of the discipline Their selection contains a mixture of established and recent writings and each section features a contextualizing introduction and detailed suggestions for further reading
