Integrated Marketing for Colleges, Universities, and Schools Robert Allen Sevier, 1998. This book offers a step-by-step approach to marketing for educational institutions, especially colleges and universities. The book is organized into three broad sections. Section 1 makes the case for marketing in six chapters which address: 1. challenges which are or will affect colleges and universities; 2. the role of institutional mission, vision, and leadership in the marketing planning process; 3. the definition of marketing and the four Ps of marketing: product, price, place, and promotion; 4. principles of qualitative and quantitative institutional research; 5. the importance of institutional image; and 6. development of a segmenting strategy. Section 2 is on the planning process itself; its three chapters cover empowering the marketing process and building the team, the seven steps of writing a marketing plan, and evaluation of the overall process. Section 3 offers guidelines to help troubleshoot and improve the effectiveness of the marketing plan and process. Five appendices list sources of secondary research organizations and associations and valuable Web sites, plus a primer for working with teams and a sample faculty survey form. Contains approximately 270 references. DB.
