

An Alternative Education?

Support for our most disengaged young people: A guide for educators and Alternative Education providers

The education young people receive at Alternative Education has the power to reconnect them to their learning and change their lives. ERO talked to young people, educators, providers, and schools to find out how well Alternative Education is going. We found there is a lot that needs to improve in Alternative Education, to help young people achieve good outcomes. Young people in Alternative Education often want to learn, and the work that educators and providers do is critical to their life outcomes.

This guide is for educators and providers that work with young people in Alternative Education. It is about ERO's new report: 'An Alternative Education? Support for our most disengaged young people'. It shares:

- what we heard from the young people, educators, and providers we talked to
- what we found out about what good provision looks like
