Guide to European Foundations Fondazione Giovanni Agnelli, 1979 Guide to European Foundations Fondazione Giovanni Agnelli (Italia), 1973 Guide to European foundations. [New York] , The Holocaust: A Guide to Europe's Sites, Memorials and Museums Rosie Whitehouse, 2024-10-04

New from Bradt is The Holocaust Europe's Sites Museums and Memorials a unique travel guidebook to European locations that tell the story of the greatest crime ever perpetrated the Nazi genocide of 6 million Jews and other persecuted groups In recent years countries once reluctant to delve into the dark corners of their past have begun to document the history of the Holocaust and its aftermath Europe has many new ground breaking museums and memorials that tell us as much about the present as they do the past Chapters are dedicated to each country or region occupied by Nazi Germany plus nations like the UK and neutral Sweden which played a vital role both before and after the Holocaust Organised around city hubs in each country this Bradt guide helps visitors explore numerous destinations whether infamous well known or comparatively unexpected This is much much more than a guide to notorious sites such as Auschwitz Birkenau Buchenwald or Dachau You can take a walking tour in Vienna to view the new wall of names Or visit the Memorial des Martyrs de la Deportation in Paris Anne Frank House in Amsterdam or the Jewish Museum in Ferrara And you can learn how babies were smuggled out of the Kovno ghetto in potato sacks in Lithuania or read about Bavaria's Kloster Indersdorf a remarkable children's home that cared for survivors Written by a journalist and travel writer specialising in Jewish history Bradt's The Holocaust Europe's Sites Museums and Memorials provides the traveller with not only a list of must see sites in each country but also a comprehensive list of organisations that run tours commemorations and volunteer schemes Suggestions of where to eat and stay including Kosher restaurants and hotels ease the traveller's way as do descriptions of local Jewish organisations and tips on how to pace potentially difficult journeys into Europe's dark past Bradt's The Holocaust Europe's Sites Museums and Memorials is the first comprehensive travel guide to the genocide and the first to help the traveller understand the Holocaust by seeing the places where it unfurled Philanthropic Foundations in the Twentieth Century Joseph C. Kiger, 2000-01-30 In a readable coherent and succinct account Kiger surveys the changes that have taken place in U S foundations in the 20th century and describes our foundations as they exist today Opening with historical information on the emergence of large foundations at the beginning of the century the book discusses the major characteristics of foundations emphasizing that they are organized to give away rather than make money and identifies and discusses the major changes since 1950 In considering those changes the book considers such topics as growth and expansion diversification in the makeup of trustees and staff and governmental oversight and supervision In the increasing movement of foundations into the international sphere the book covers their international activities and the formation and operation of international centers and groups associated with them Philanthropic Foundations in the Twentieth Century provides a useful overview of the growth development and operation of foundations Guide to European Foundations
