Fasting Exploring A Great Spiritual Practice:

Fasting Lynne M. Baab, 2009-09-20 You're blessed when you've worked up a good appetite for God Matthew 5:6 The Message We live in hungry times Ours is a consumer culture predisposed to quickly fill the cravings of body and mind The idea of fasting the voluntary denial of something for a specific time for a spiritual purpose sets us immediately on edge But Lynne Baab makes the case that anyone can fast Fasting is an expression of freedom Free from the patterns and habits that mark everyday life from time to time we can move beyond our appetites into meaningful encounter with God In Fasting you'll discover an ancient Christian practice that extends beyond giving up food to any regular activity in our contemporary lives You'll see how taking a break from eating or drinking or checking e-mail or watching television opens us up to discover new things about ourselves and God and the world around us You'll see that while not everyone should forgo food anyone can step out of routine to feed the soul In a time of great spiritual hunger God invites us all to a feast fellowship with the Creator of the universe where all our truest needs are identified and attended to

Fasting: an Exceptional Human Experience

Randi Fredricks, 2012-12-20 Fasting An Exceptional Human Experience Since prehistory fasting has been used in various ways as a means of transformation As a spiritual practice it is the oldest and most common form of asceticism and is found in virtually every religion and spiritual tradition In psychology studies have suggested that fasting can alleviate the symptoms of some psychiatric conditions including depression and schizophrenia In medicine fasting is one of the most promising therapies with research suggesting that fasting can cause certain drugs such as chemotherapy to work better while reducing drug side effects Hunger striking sometimes called political fasting may be the most powerful application of fasting Proof of this occurred in 1948 when Gandhi's hunger strike caused millions of Hindus and Muslims in India to cease their fighting As a practical guide Randi Fredricks Ph.D. provides detailed information on the different types of fasting where people fast the physiological process of fasting and the contraindications and criticisms of fasting Using existing literature and original research Dr. Fredricks focuses on the transformative characteristics of fasting in the contexts of psychology medicine and spirituality The relationship between fasting and transpersonal psychology is examined with a focus on peak experiences self-realization and other exceptional human experiences Dr. Fredricks demonstrates how fasting can be profoundly therapeutic create global paradigm shifts and provide personal mystical phenomena

The Decline and Subsequent Resurgence of Fasting in the Church Dawn M. Pondt BA MAE DMin, 2009-03-02 There is no available information at this time Food, Feasts, and Faith Paul Fieldhouse, 2017-04-17 An indispensable resource for exploring food and faith this two volume set offers information on food related religious beliefs customs and practices from around the world Why do Catholics eat fish on Fridays Why are there retirement homes for aged cows in India What culture holds ceremonies to welcome the first salmon More than five billion people worldwide claim a religious identity that shapes the way they think about themselves how they act and what they eat Food Feasts and Faith An Encyclopedia of Food Culture in World Religions explores how the food we eat every day often serves purposes other than to keep us healthy and stay alive we eat to express our faith and to adhere to ethnic or cultural traditions that are part of who we are This book provides readers with an understanding of the rich world of food and faith It contains more than 200 alphabetically arranged entries that describe the beliefs and customs of well established major world religions and sects as well as those of smaller faith communities and new religious movements The entries cover topics such as religious food rules religious festivals and symbolic foods and vegetarianism and veganism as well as general themes such as rites of passage social justice hospitality and compassion Each entry on religion explains what the religious dietary laws and guidelines are and how these were interpreted and put into practice historically and in modern settings The coverage also includes important festivals and feast days as well as significant religious figures and organizations Additionally some 160 sidebars provide examples and more detailed information as well as fun facts

Starving for Justice Ralph Armbruster-Sandoval, 2017-03-21 In the 1990s three college campuses in California exploded as Chicano and Latino students went on hunger strikes Through courageous self sacrifice these students risked their lives to challenge racial neoliberalism budget cuts and fee increases The strikers acted and spoke spectacularly and despite great odds produced substantive change Social movement scholars have raised the question of why some people risk their lives to create a better world In Starving for Justice Ralph Armbruster Sandoval uses interviews and archival material to examine people's willingness to make the extreme sacrifice and give their lives in order to create a more just society Popular memory and scholarly discourse around social movements have long acknowledged the actions of student groups during the 1960s Now Armbruster Sandoval extends our understanding of social justice and activism providing one of the first examinations of Chicana and Latina student activism in the 1990s Students at University of California Los Angeles University of California Santa Barbara and Stanford University went on hunger strikes to demand the establishment and expansion of Chicana studies departments They also had even broader aspirations to obtain dignity and justice for all people These students spoke eloquently making their bodies and concerns visible They challenged anti immigrant politics They scrutinized the rapid growth of the prison industrial complex racial and class polarization and the university's neoliberalization Though they did not fully succeed in having all their demands met they helped generate long lasting social change on their respective campuses making those learning institutions more just
