Fishing With My Old Guy:

Fishing Buddies Thomas R. Martin, 2019-10-21 Paul was walking in darkness ever since the death of his mother. He tried escaping the pain by quitting school and running away, leaning heavily on drugs and alcohol. Years later, Paul returns for the funeral of his good friend Peter. He finds himself sitting in his bedroom after the service, looking at his fishing poles and reminiscing about the day he and Peter had met him, the Old Man, by the river. He falls asleep, trying to recall the ancient wisdom the Old Man had passed onto him. And Peter? Paul awakes in darkness and heads out to go fishing, hoping to recapture some of the magic of the river. He meets Bill, the owner of his favorite bait shop, already fishing in his favorite hole. Little does either of them know the plans that have been made to help them see the Light. From the Far Side of the River Paul Quarrington, 2012-01-06 As he braves rills, rivers, and ocean waters in search of his elusive quarry, Paul Quarrington's casts are as likely to call up thoughts of his troubled marriage, his father's death, or one of midlife's existential questions as they are to yield a fish, big or small. But whatever his trials and triumphs, he is never without his wickedly perverse sense of humor. Whether you're a dedicated river wader or an armchair angler, you'll find him an irresistible companion. A Life in the Bush Roy MacGregor, 2015-09-08 Winner of The CAA Birks Family Foundation Award for Biography, The 2000 Ottawa Carlton Book Award, The U.S. Rutstrum Award for Best Wilderness Book. In 1929, at the age of twenty-two, Duncan MacGregor, the son of a lumberman, great grandson of a voyageur, and an avid reader and baseball fan, headed off into the largest tract of preserved bush in the world: Ontario's Algonquin Park. When he got there, he was home for the rest of his life. From the true nature of fishing to the harsh realities of raising a family in the woods, from the role of fear in the bush to the small nuances of family relationships, A Life in the Bush is painted on a canvas both vast and richly detailed. A story that captures the tough physical demands, the rich life of the senses, and the unselfconscious freedom that comes from living apart from town and city. In this beautifully crafted memoir, his father Roy MacGregor paints an intimate portrait of an unusual man and spins a spellbinding tale of a boy's complex relationship with his father. He also evokes, perhaps for the first time in Canadian literature, the bush the way bush people see it: an insider's view of life in the totemic Canadian wilderness. City Fishing Richard Chiappone, 2002 Sometimes the wildest fishing happens right in your own town or in the city you happen to be visiting. Some of fly fishing's most gifted writers proclaim the joys and rewards of fishing urban waters. Shelves of books have been written about the ultimate fly fishing experience: the trip to remote, pristine waters where fish are plentiful and wild. But sometimes there's good fishing to be found right down the street in the most unlikely of settings. These writers share stories about the fish they've found in the midst of Manhattan, London, Tokyo, and Paris. Fishing a manmade lake in the suburbs of Minnesota, a park pond in New Jersey, in suspect rivers within sight of factories in Buffalo and Oakland, they steal an hour or two and go off to fish where they can, when they can, because they can't not fish. This unorthodox collection reveals what true fishermen understand: good fishing is to be had anywhere you can find it. Fly-Fishing Secrets of the Ancients Paul
