Fix It Shop:

The Fix-It Shop Frederick Alimonti, 2011-08 Everything has a story Lunden explained In fact most things have many stories In order to fix something properly one needs to know more about it than simply what is broken You need to know its story It sounds strange but to fix something I mean really fix something involves a lot more than mechanics or engineering This toaster of yours has quite a lot to say and with a little fixing quite a few more stories yet to gather Taconic New York is a sleepy town In fact it s practically dead Tommy Jameson wonders what has happened to his town One day an odd little man opens Ed s Fix It Shop Ed Lunden its mysterious owner seems able to fix everything even a hopelessly cracked baseball bat is returned to its owner better than new and fit for play Can this strange man fix only things Do his abilities extend to people and perhaps even the whole broken town Find out in The Fix It Shop A Story of Music Magic a Baseball Bat and a Toaster

Re/Writing the Center Susan Lawrence, Terry Myers Zawacki, 2019-03-15 Re Writing the Center illuminates how core writing center pedagogies and institutional arrangements are complicated by the need to create intentional targeted support for advanced graduate writers Most writing center tutors are undergraduates whose lack of familiarity with the genres preparatory knowledge and research processes integral to graduate level writing can leave them underprepared to assist graduate students Complicating the issue is that many of the graduate students who take advantage of writing center support are international students The essays in this volume show how to navigate the divide between traditional writing center theory and practices developed to support undergraduate writers and the growing demand for writing centers to meet the needs of advanced graduate writers Contributors address core assumptions of writing center pedagogy such as the concept of peers and peer tutoring the emphasis on one to one tutorials the positioning of tutors as generalists rather than specialists and even the notion of the writing center as the primary location or center of the tutoring process Re Writing the Center offers an imaginative perspective on the benefits writing centers can offer to graduate students and on the new possibilities for inquiry and practice graduate students can inspire in the writing center Contributors Laura Brady Michelle Cox Thomas Deans Paula Gillespie Mary Glavan Marilyn Gray James Holsinger Elena Kallestinova Tika Lamsal Patrick S Lawrence Elizabeth Lenaghan Michael A Pemberton Sherry Wynn Perdue Doug Phillips Juliann Reineke Adam Robinson Steve Simpson Nathalie Singh Corcoran Ashly Bender Smith Sarah Summers Molly Tetreault
