Carnation Joseph Murphy, 2000-09-01 The story is a fast paced human drama High school is a time of innocence a time for fun when adolescents establish a set of values that will last a lifetime In 1957 teens were carousing all across the country as the 1950s were in full roar The Bronx New York was no different Relive the adventures of the in crowd at St Helenas Catholic high school as they learn the importance of friendship and the meaning of love On a lark four high school seniors celebrate an 18th birthday party in the school cafeteria The only problems were that the school was closed for the night and they brought along a keg of beer for the party The nuns living three floors above hear the commotion and think a rape is in process and phone the police causing all Hell to break loose The influence of the church and school seemed limitless Most of the clergy served as a maturing authority to guide their students along the straight and narrow path However one rouge administrator had his own interpretation of the Lords missive From this Brothers perspective it was the principle behind the punishment that mattered Responsible adults would be developed out of irresponsible boys His actions and excessive punishments aimed at breaking down a select few pranksters would only serve as a rallying point to unify the student body and faculty to support the targets of his vengeance      The Circus Is in Town Lisa Doris Alexander, Joel Nathan

Masucci Andrew McIntosh Jorge E Moraga Leigh M Moscovitz David C Ogden Joel Nathan Rosen Kevin A Stein and Henry Yu In this fifth book on sport and the nature of reputation editors Lisa Doris Alexander and Joel Nathan Rosen have tasked their contributors with examining reputation from the perspective of celebrity and spectacle which in some cases can be better defined as scandal The subjects chronicled in this volume have all proven themselves to exist somewhere on the spectacular spectrum the spotlight seemed always to gravitate toward them All have displayed phenomenal feats of athletic prowess and artistry and all have faced a controversy or been thrust into a situation that grows from age old notions of the spectacle Some handled the hoopla like the champions they are or were while others struggled and even faded amid the hustle and flow of their runaway celebrity While their individual narratives are engrossing these stories collectively paint a portrait of sport and spectacle that offers context and clarity Written by a range of scholarly contributors from multiple disciplines The Circus Is in Town Sport Celebrity and Spectacle contains careful analysis of such megastars as LeBron James Tonya Harding David Beckham Shaquille O Neal Maria Sharapova and Colin Kaepernick This final volume of a project that has spanned the first three decades of the twenty first century looks to sharpen questions regarding how it is that reputations of celebrity athletes are forged maintained transformed repurposed destroyed and at times rehabilitated The subjects in this collection have been driven by this notion of the spectacle in ways that offer interesting and entertaining inquiry into the arc of athletic reputations

Cinema under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung, 2024-11-15 Cinema under National Reconstruction calls for a revisionist understanding of state film censorship during successive Cold War military regimes in South Korea 1961 1988 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive s digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Hye Seung Chung makes the case that while political oppression repression existed inside and outside the film industry during this period film censorship was not simply a tool for authoritarian dictatorship Through such case studies as Yu Hyun mok s The Stray Bullet 1961 Ha Kil jong s The March of the Fools 1975 and Yi Chang ho s Declaration of Fools 1983 the author defines censorship as a dialogical process of cultural negotiations wherein the state the film industry and the public fight out a battle over the definitions and functions of national cinema In the context of Cold War Korea one cannot fully understand or construct film history without reassessing censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the new narrative or sentiment of the nation on the big screen

Wathington, 2022-03-01 2022 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Black Women and Public Health creates an urgently needed interdisciplinary dialogue about issues of race gender and health An enduring history of racism sexism and dehumanization of Black women s bodies has largely rendered the health needs of the Black community inaudible and invisible Grounded in the lived experiences and expertise of Black women this collection bridges gaps between researchers practitioners educators and advocates Black women s public health work is a regenerative practice one that looks backward inward and forward to improve the quality of life for Black communities in the United States and beyond The three dozen authors in this volume offer analysis critique and recommendations for overcoming longstanding and contemporary challenges to equity in public health practices      Shooting Ghosts Thomas J. and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception. Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time, this comprehension is itself already the product of these media's fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time. This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films, understanding the former as the latter's constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place. By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present, this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity. Departing from a non-taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time, this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films: FIELD OF DREAMS, WE ARE MARSHALL, KNUTE ROCKNE: ALL AMERICAN, JIM THORPE: ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE. Trammell Todd Masters, 2016-12-09

For nearly two decades, Alan Trammell displayed an all-around game as a fielder, hitter, and base runner that was rare for shortstops of his era. With second baseman Lou Whitaker, he formed one half of arguably the greatest double play combination in baseball history and was an integral piece of one of the signature teams of the 1980s. Trammell was a World Series hero and a central figure in one of the greatest pennant races in American League history. From his early days as a multi-sport prep star in the talent-rich San Diego area through a meteoric ascension up the minor league ladder and into the big leagues, Trammell won over doubters and overcame setbacks to become one of the top players in the Detroit Tigers' history. He joined Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players to spend 20 seasons in Detroit and later served an ill-fated managerial stint with the franchise. This exhaustively researched biography provides the first book-length account of the life and career of one of the most well-known figures in Detroit sports history.
