Mattering Spiritualities Silvia Battista, David Mason, 2025-03-31 Mattering Spiritualities brings together an array of international scholars and practitioners to explore spirituality in embodiment through the lens of performance performative writing and performance studies The book concerns spirituality and takes the body as the site of whatever it is we call spirituality The methodological assumption is that the opposition of body and spirit is a false binary that calls for re examination and revision It stems from the argument that people can deliberately shift their boundaries of perception and knowing through practice technologies and performative techniques that can alter the way in which they perceive the ecologies in which they are embedded This approach understands that careful attention to which bodies are performing in any given scenario is crucial as is a sensitivity to the ramifications of any body's race gender class and biological ability Performance can therefore be regarded as anything through which individuals and collectives experiment with bodies as technologies Each chapter engages with such experiments to explore how bodies experience and relate to other bodies

human and other than human but also how by mobilizing bodies and changing relationships between them practitioners can transform people spaces and places objects ecologies large and small and shift the borders of the known Such experiments can also reveal intersectional dynamics within given social political and biological borders offering new perspectives and angles of analysis This collection intends to serve transdisciplinary studies and to support varied learning and teaching environments for undergraduate postgraduate and PhD students

Memory, Muses,

Memoir Deb Everson Borofka, 2009-12 Why is the memoir genre so important What is it that drives us to tell our own stories The ancient Greek myth of Goddess Memory and her daughters the Muses offers new ways to re enter the stories of our lives and shape them in surprising ways Mnemosyne s birthing of the Muses underscores her commitment to express all of the facets of her personal story grief joy love body breath history spirituality reverie and humor The memoirist follows Mnemosyne s imaginal lineage in crafting all memoirs Memories live in matter in the very cells of our bodies Writing our life stories allows us to consider the content of our experiences the plurality of perspectives from which we can choose to shape them and the use that we want to make of them We may choose to write for many reasons psychological physical and cultural healing being just a few This book suggests the exploration of an imaginable field is possible when we look at how figures from Greek mythology continue to inspire contemporary life writing The New Criterion, 1998 The Affective Core Self Lajos Horváth, 2024-04-03 This book extends the contemporary concept of the minimal self by introducing the affective core self The overall aim is to integrate certain psychoanalytical ideas into the phenomenological investigation of passivity and reformulate the idea of the phenomenological unconscious This volume contributes to the multidimensional analysis of the self by positioning the affective core self between the layers of the more minimal and the less minimal self It underscores the importance of the unconscious in the constitution of the affective core self by providing the comparative analysis of the phenomenological and the psychoanalytical unconscious Furthermore comparisons are drawn between Freud s conception of the afterwardsness of trauma and the phenomenological notion of retroactive sense constitution The book concludes that retroactive sense making is a double sided phenomenon and differentiates between implicit bodily and conscious narrative retroactive sense constitution In order to bolster the idea of implicit bodily sense constitution the volume also examines and utilizes contemporary insights on the nature of body memory The conclusion claims that the affective core self is constituted in time by means of the underlying processes of the two sided retroactive sense constitution This text appeals to students and researchers working in phenomenology and philosophy of mind Life Writing Outside the Lines Eva C. Karpinski, Ricia Chansky, 2020-06-04 Designed as a contribution to the field of transnational comparative American studies this book focuses on gender in life writing that exceeds the boundaries of traditional genres The contributors engage with authors who bend genres to speak gender as it manifests in multiple shapes in different geographic locations across the Americas and especially as it intersects with race and migration war and colonialism illness and ageing In addition to supplying new insights into the established sites of auto biographical production such as memoir archive and oral history the book explores experimental mixed forms such as selfies auto theory auto bio comics and autobiogeography By combining this multi genre and multi media perspective with a multi generational approach to life writing the book showcases a spectrum of established and emerging critical voices many of whom have been influenced by the work of Marlene Kadar the Canadian life writing scholar whose interventions have expanded the feminist and interdisciplinary methods of life writing studies Tracing the
