Flaubert Et La Creation Litteraire:

Flaubert Et la Creation Litteraire P. M. Wetherill, 'Les Tentations de saint Antoine' and Flaubert's Fiction Mary Neiland, 2022-11-07 This book reveals the extensive and dynamic interplay between Les Tentations de saint Antoine and the rest of Flaubert's fiction. Mary Neiland combines two critical approaches: genetic and intertextual criticism in order to trace the development of selected topoi and figures across the three versions of La Tentation and on through Flaubert's other major works. Each chapter is devoted to one of these centres of interest: namely the banquet scene, the cityscape, the crowd, the seductive female and the Devil. Detailed study of these five areas exposes a remarkable intimacy between writings that appear at a far remove from each other. The networks of recurring images located demonstrate for the first time the obsessive nature of Flaubert's writing practice; the pursuit of these networks across his fictional writings exposes his developing technique and La Tentation is revealed as both a privileged moment of expression and as a place of auto-reflection. This volume will be of interest to students and specialists of Flaubert as well as to those interested in genetic and intertextual criticism. collection of essays explores the ways in which talking therapies have been depicted in twentieth century and contemporary narratives life writings fiction and poetry in French This vibrant corpus of francophone literary engagements of therapy has so far been widely unexplored but it offers rich insights into the connections between literature and psychoanalysis As the number of autobiographical and fictional depictions of the therapeutic encounter is still on the rise these creative outputs raise pressing questions why do narratives of the therapeutic encounter continue to fascinate writers and readers What do these works tell us about the particular culture and history in which they are written What do they tell us about therapeutic and other human encounters The volume highlights the important role that the creative arts have played in offering representations and explorations of our minds our relationships and our mental health or more pressingly ill health The volume s focus is not only on the patient s experience as expressed via the creative act and as counterweight to the practitioner s case study but more specifically on the therapeutic encounter specifically the relationship between therapist and patient The contributors here engage with ideas and methodologies within contemporary psychoanalytic thought including but not limited to those of Sigmund Freud Melanie Klein Andr Green Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Donald Winnicott highlighting the dynamic research culture that exists in this field and maintaining a dialogue between the humanities and various therapeutic disciplines Narratives of the Therapeutic Encounter combines the analysis of psychoanalytic and fictional texts to explore the implications that arise from the space between the participants in therapy including creative and aesthetic inspirations therapeutic potentials and ethical dilemmas

A Late Antique Poetics? Joshua Hartman, Helen Kaufmann, 2023-06-15 The poetry of the late Roman world has a fascinating history Sometimes an object of derision sometimes an object of admiration it has found numerous detractors and defenders among classicists and Latin literary critics This volume explores the scholarly approaches to late Latin poetry that have developed over the last 40 years and it seeks especially to develop complement and challenge the seminal concept of the Jeweled Style proposed by Michael Roberts in 1989 While Roberts s monograph has long been a vade mecum within the world of late antique literary studies a critical reassessment of its validity as a concept is overdue This volume invites established and emerging scholars from different research traditions to return to the influential conclusions put forward by Roberts It asks them to examine the continued relevance of The Jeweled Style and to suggest new ways to engage it In a joint effort the nineteen chapters of this volume define and map the jeweled style extending it to new genres geographic regions time periods and methodologies Each contribution seeks to provide insightful analysis that integrates the last 30 years of scholarship while pursuing ambitious applications of the jeweled style within and beyond the world of late antiquity

Bel-Ami Guy de Maupassant, 2001 Maupassant's second novel Bel Ami 1885 is the story of a ruthlessly ambitious young man Georges Duroy christened Bel Ami by his female admirers making it to the top in fin de siècle Paris It is a novel about money sex and power set against the background of the politics of the French colonization of North Africa It explores the dynamics of an urban society uncomfortably close to our own and is a devastating satire of the sleaziness of contemporary journalism Bel Ami enjoys the status of an authentic record of the apotheosis of bourgeois capitalism under the Third Republic But the creative tension between its analysis of modern behavior and its identifiably late nineteenth century fabric is one of the reasons why Bel Ami remains one of the finest French novels of its time as well as being recognized as Maupassant's greatest achievement as a novelist This new translation is complemented by fullest introduction and notes of any edition currently available

L'Intime épistolaire (1850-1900) Jelena Jovicic, 2010-01-08 L'Intime épistolaire 1850 1900 genre et pratique culturelle is a study of private letters by eight Nineteenth Century French authors Flaubert Zola Sand Baudelaire Maupassant Eberhardt Bashkirtseff and Edmond de Goncourt during the period of 1850 to 1900 Through in depth analyses of these intriguing documents the book demonstrates that personal correspondences cast fresh light on the concept of intimacy in Nineteenth Century French culture Since epistolary writing implies a necessary exchange between lived experience and the written word the book's intention is also to interpret letter practice as a specific textual form with its own generic expectations and constraints which are distinct from other life writing genres such as the diary the autobiography and the memoir Divided into five chapters the study begins with a short introduction to the culture of individuality The four subsequent chapters explore the poetics of epistolary writing including significant topics the various roles of the letter writer epistolary pacts and the problem of the signature Addressing a wide range of epistolary situations including daily life health money problems love travel and even suicide notes the book also offers new critical perspectives on six of the most interesting manuscript letters that have been chosen from the examined sources
