Fasting for Regeneration Julia Seton, 1963 The Short Cut Julia Seton, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1929 edition The Short Cut Julia Seton, 1928 The Fasting Story Health Research Staff, 1996-09 Born Again Bodies R. Marie Griffith, 2004-10-04 Fat People Don't Go to Heaven screamed a headline in the tabloid Globe in November 2000. The story recounted the success of the Weigh Down Workshop, the nation's largest Christian diet corporation, and the subject of extensive press coverage from Larry King Live to the New Yorker. In the United States today, hundreds of thousands of people are making diet a religious duty by enrolling in Christian diet programs and reading Christian diet literature like What Would Jesus Eat and Fit for God. Written with style and wit, far-ranging in its implications and rich with the stories of real people, Born Again Bodies launches a provocative yet sensitive investigation into Christian fitness and diet culture. Looking closely at both the religious roots of this movement and its present-day incarnations, R. Marie Griffith vividly analyzes Christianity's intricate role in America's obsession with the body, diet, and fitness. As she traces the underpinning of modern-day beauty and slimness ideals as well as the bigotry against people who are overweight, Griffith links seemingly disparate groups in American history, including seventeenth-century New England Puritans, Progressive Era New Thought adherents, and late twentieth-century evangelical diet preachers.
