Five Masters A Study In The Mutations Of The Novel:

Five Masters Joseph Wood Krutch, 1961 Theory of the Novel Philip Stevick, 1967-10 Comprehensive collections of theoretical essays on various facets of the novel Novel and Romance Hubert McDermott, 1989-06-18 McDermott argues that the novels of the 18th century should be seen as part of an age old European tradition going back to Homer rather than as a unique English event He examines European fictional narratives and romance and their influence on authors such as Richardson and Fielding Books and Notes Los Angeles County Public Library, 1926 The UAB Marcel Proust Symposium William C. Carter, 1989 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Sir Charles Grandison Sylvia Kasey Marks, 1986 The first book length monograph to examine Samuel Richardson s last and least known work Marks considers this novel a natural outgrowth and culmination of the conduct book form indeed the finest example of the genre Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1929 Samuel Richardson's theory of fiction Donald L. Ball, 2018-12-03 No detailed description available for Samuel Richardson s theory of fiction The relation of Tristram Shandy to the life of Sterne Overton Philip James, 2011-09-27 No detailed description available for The relation of Tristram Shandy to the life of Sterne Companion to Literature Abby H. P. Werlock, 2009 Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student Researchers RUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates The Sanctification of Don Quixote Eric Ziolkowski, 2008-01-18 Ziolkowski explores the religious implications of the figure of Don Quixote in Western literature from Cervantes to the present While scholars and critics in the past have often called attention to the secularizing tendency of modern literature to the numerous fictional adaptations of the Christ figure on the one hand and the innumerable literary descendants of Don Quixote on the other this study is the first to examine a lineage of characters in whom the images of the alleged savior and the mad knight are combined After considering Don Quixote as the first modern novel and taking into account its relationship to religion society and censorship in seventeenth century Spain Ziolkowski traces the history and fate of Don Quixote the character through a series of religious transformations over the centuries focusing on three novels that adapt the Quixote figure Henry Fielding s Joseph Andrews Fyodor Dostoevsky s The Idiot and Graham Greene s Monsignor Quixote Ziolkowski argues that given the increased secularization and decline of religious consciousness over the last several centuries any pursuit of religious values or ideas becomes questionable and this appears quixotic insofar as it stands in contradiction to the sociohistorical context He concludes that religious existence for the few who pursue it in suffering which means that the religious person feels temporally displaced for adhering to a seemingly obsolete faith and lifestyle

The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier, 2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes A Theory of the Novel: Its Generic Impulse and Controlling Principle Wesley Ford Davis,1970 Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature ,
