The doctrine of predestination is an important starting point for the study of Christian theology thought from a Reformed theological perspective This doctrine is essential because it is one of the central themes from the Bible that has been the reason for many debates among many theologians in the history of the church Despite the different views held by mainline Protestant theologians like Martin Luther John Calvin and Jacobus Arminius this book points to Scripture as the basis for Reformed soteriology It uses the tools of biblical interpretation to show how the entire Bible addresses the doctrine of predestination so that theology students pastors Bible teachers and anyone interested in Christian theology will better understand predestination from a Reformed perspective toward an effective ministry today

Election, Atonement, and the Holy Spirit Matthias Grebe, 2015-04-30 Election Atonement and the Holy Spirit is an examination of the doctrines of election and atonement in Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics taking up Barth's own challenge to his reader to surpass his argument and offer a better typological interpretation of the cultic texts Barth's radical reworking of Calvin's doctrine of election is one of the most important developments in twentieth century theology Christ synthesizes for Barth a particular dialectic the binary structure of God's Yes of election and God's No of rejection The book's central question how can Jesus simultaneously be both the elected and the rejected CD II 2 acting as both the judge and the judged CD IV 1 is followed by an exploration of the roles of the Holy Spirit and human freedom in God's electing and saving action Although commentators acknowledge Barth's innovation in this area but also identify problems with his approach few have offered what David Ford has called a correction from within Barth using Barth's own method Using the concept of Existenzstellvertretung this critique of Barth's exegetical justification for the doctrines offers an alternative exegesis that not only provides this much needed correction but also immerses the reader in a fresh engagement with Scripture itself

Paul of Tarsus: Apostle to the Gentiles , Does God Love All or Some? Ronnie W. Rogers, 2019-04-19 The term extensivism describes my position regarding the doctrine of salvation Specifically extensivism believes that man was created in the image of God with otherwise choice God's salvation plan involves an all inclusive unconditional offer of salvation to every person reception of which is conditioned upon grace enabled faith rather than Calvinism's exclusive plan of a limited actual offer of salvation to only the unconditionally elected Generally it replaces the term non Calvinism These are the five primary objectives of the book First my considerations would result in a deeper understanding of God Second I will demonstrate that God salvationally loves every single person Third I intend to offer a precise and respectful critique of Calvinism's internal and biblical inconsistencies these are largely due to its commitment to compatibilism and unconditional election Fourth I will demonstrate that God's free choice to endow man with libertarian freedom is a more biblical perspective Fifth because a significant percentage of people who become Calvinists do not actually understand Calvinism I seek to present Calvinism and extensivism in language that is precisely and consistently reflective of the commitments of each perspective regarding God's sovereignty salvific love foreknowledge and man's freedom this so a person can make an informed choice about Calvinism

Eiss,2010-02-19 No one heard the shot No one ever found the gun It was Sunday July 27 1890 Vincent had recently finished Wheatfield with Crows thought to be his final painting one that he described as representing vast fields of wheat beneath troubled skies one where he said in a letter he meant to send to Theo I did not need to go out of my way to try to express cheerlessness and extreme loneliness The letter never got sent but was found stuffed in his smock That morning as usual he walked out into the wheat fields with his easel brushes tubes of color and folding stool perhaps hoping to reach his destination before the gang of local boys and girls were up and able to tease him and throw tomatoes Le Crau a wide plain of ripe grain fields of citron yellow tan and ochre spread out beneath the bright Provencal sun It s safe to assume he heard the cicadas singing loudly the swiping swishes of the farmers scythes already cutting through the rich wheat stalks the gusts of wind whispering through the olive branches Driven and filled with energy for months he had been quickly with an assurance that overcame and perhaps even came from his doubts and struggles putting his own dramatic visions on canvas after canvas But today he did not go into the fields to paint or perhaps in the beginning he did perhaps in the morning that was his intention No one will ever know He said he brought the revolver to frighten off the crows Possibly that was his original intention when he included it with his lunch of bread and milk In the end it s probably not relevant except for the endless attempts to analyze him to dig into his complex psyche at once brilliant and yet impelled to self destruction The Ravoux family were sitting on the terrace of their caf when he returned a bit concerned because he was late but not overly so When he finally appeared his walk was more uneven than usual and he held his hand over his stomach Monsieur Vincent Mrs Ravoux said we were worried we are glad to see you come Has anything bad happened No but I he left his reply unfinished as he passed inside Mr Ravoux followed him upstairs where he found him sitting on his bed facing the wall I wanted to kill myself This book is a critical examination of Vincent van Gogh that offers insights into his life his religious beliefs his relationships with women and of course his paintings It includes discussions of his letters and responds to many of the previous works about him dispelling some of the myths that have no foundation and pointing out how many of the claims made about him and many of the popular beliefs that have grown up around him are at best guesswork It explores psychological neurological theological philosophical aesthetic and historical paradigms for comprehending his enigmatic and enticing personality From the Coffin to the Cross Calvin McDonald,2012-12-18 In a prophetic vision God showed me the evangelical churches of North America channeling all their spiritual energy into the works of their own hands enshrining these works as a divine manifestation of God while living in rebellion to His word of truth We have forsaken the mandate of the Azusa Street Revival and have been shutting the door more and more to all possibilities for any future revivals and awakenings in North America If the church does not wake up from its spiritual slumber all will soon be lost The purpose of this book is to reveal to the body of Christ in North America and the rest of the world where we have gone wrong and how to turn back to God in much needed repentance It is my prayer that through this book a new spirit of righteousness will be awakened in true believers everywhere and that they would be energized into a new mindset of desiring something authentic from Gods Holy Spirit no longer clinging to that which is religious and familiar Lord let the evangelical churches of North America be set free from the entanglements of their own cultural and social bondages and allow the true love of Jesus Christ to reign in their hearts churches and communities Let the real spirit of the Christ be their guide Amen <http://youtube.com/watch?v=C3u8KZtTYmg> No Place for Sovereignty R.
