

KAREN (contd)

(beat)

Okay. See you in the morning.

She hangs up.

ANGELA

Sounds like they're trying to get rid of you.

KAREN

They're going to get a fight if they try.

ANGELA

Karen, you ever been downtown? There's two big streets, one's called Kerr and one's called McGee and that's how I see it. They own this state, they own everybody in this state. They own practically everybody I work on.

She makes a final little embellishing touch on DOLLY.

ANGELA (contd)

(to Karen, indicating Dolly's face)

What do you think?

KAREN

What kind of makeup base do you use?

ANGELA

The kind I always use.

DREW comes into the kitchen. His banjo is hanging around his neck on a strap. He opens the icebox, takes out the only beer left. Scowls.

DREW

I don't mind somebody taking one of my beers if they replace it.

KAREN

You're making a big deal about everything lately.

DREW

Everything's going to hell around here.

Slams the icebox.

KAREN

Meaning you're out of beer?

Five Screenplays

Steven H. Gale

Five Screenplays:

Five Screenplays Preston Sturges, 1986 Five comic masterpieces by Preston Sturges who has been called Hollywood's greatest writer-director with emphasis on the former. The scripts are drawn from the great period between 1939 and 1944 which Andrew Sarris called one of the most brilliant and most bizarre bursts of creation in the history of cinema. 5

Screenplays George N. Rumanes, 2012-05 George N. Rumanes who now lives in Los Angeles with his family is a writer who works in the film industry. His second novel The Man With The Black Worrybeads a worldwide best seller will be filmed in Hollywood, Greece and North Africa. During the past seven years Mr. Rumanes wrote five original camera-ready screenplays and he is now finishing Between the Palm and the Cypress Trees his next novel. THE SCREENPLAYS The Land of Gods and Lovers Vector One Mystery George Malvasia Two Ladies and the Mob William Goldman William Goldman, 1997 Five Screenplays Harold Pinter, 1971 Five Screenplays Preston Sturges, 1985 William Goldman William Goldman, 1995 Applause Books Marathon Man Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid The Princess Bride Misery Author royalties donated to the Motion Picture and Television Fund Crafting Short Screenplays That Connect Claudia H. Johnson, 2012-09-10 The only screenwriting book that includes a DVD that contains performances of the short films and screenplays that are featured in the book. The beauty and power of any story lies in its ability to connect to the reader, listener or observer. Crafting Short Screenplays That Connect is the first screenwriting guide to introduce connection as an essential although essentially overlooked aspect of creating stories for the screen and of the screenwriting process itself. Written with clarity and humor, this book teaches the craft of writing short screenplays by guiding the student through carefully focused writing exercises of increasing length and complexity. Eight award-winning student screenplays are included for illustration and inspiration. The text is divided into three parts. Part one focuses on preparing to write by means of exercises designed to help students think more deeply about the screenwriter's purposes, their own unique vision, material and process, and finally about what screenplays are at their simplest and most profound level: a pattern of human change created from specific moments of change, discoveries and decisions. Part two teaches students how to craft an effective pattern of human change. It guides them through the writing and re-writing of Five Not So Easy Pieces, five short screenplays of increasing length and complexity focusing on a specific principle of dramatic technique: The Discovery, The Decision, The Boxing Match, The Improbable Connection, and The Long Short Screenplay. Part Three presents the five screenplays used throughout the book to illustrate the dramatic principles that have been discussed and includes interviews with the screenwriters, a look at where they are now and what they are doing, and a brief discussion of how each film evolved. Do the Write Thing!: Five Screenplays That Embrace Diversity Karla R. Fuller, 2022-09-06 Do the Write Thing! offers screenwriting strategies that focus on diversity, equity and inclusion. The goal is to teach an already challenging writing mode that requires screenwriters to create complex human experiences through visual storytelling. We are in a critical historical moment where the importance of screenwriting can be of the utmost usefulness in the observation of racism inequity and inclusion in all media The screen representations of race ethnicity gender sexuality or class are not often explicitly addressed at the front end of the film production process specifically during the creation of the screenplay whether original or adapted from outside source material The idea is to introduce and reinforce the importance of accountability for what you write for the screen This is not to limit the screenwriter's creative impulses but rather to create and engage them in consistent ways that reveal unconscious biases and instances of systemic racism We will use five case studies of commercially successful and award winning screenplays that resist stereotypes to present multidimensional depictions of historically underrepresented groups such as LGBTQ African American Latino and Asian American In the discussions of each individual screenplay issues such as the adaptation process plot structure and devices characterization setting symbolism and genre conventions are introduced and analyzed in depth

Crafting Short Screenplays that Connect Claudia Hunter Johnson, 2010 This guide to screenwriting teaches the craft by guiding the student through writing exercises of increasing length and complexity The format allows the student to write directly in the book New to this edition is a DVD containing short films and the screenplays they are based on Pinter's World William Baker, 2018-09-15 Pinter's World Pinter and Company is not a full scale biography but a series of illuminating chapters about Pinter's life character and thought employing new information found in his Appointment Diaries recent biographical sources such as Simon Gray's memoirs and Henry Woolf's reminiscences in addition to personal discussions with several in Pinter's world This book provides a fresh illumination of Pinter's life and art his friendships obsessions and concerns Material is arranged around themes key concerns Pinter's activities Pinter's meetings and endeavors for instance with whom he met and when when he wrote what and when and his perspective at the time are documented This work explores Pinter's writing drama poetry prose journalism and letters which are here regarded as part of his aesthetic achievement Pinter's World Pinter and Company presents a pointillist portrait of him through examining central concerns in his life These encompass an obsession with the theater and games delight in restaurants demonstrating that Pinter is far removed from the socially awkward isolated figures populating his early work and the women in Pinter's world Other areas examined include Pinter's political engagement from his adolescence to his last years and the literary and other creative influences upon him This work draws upon consultation of his papers at the British Library including letters to others especially close friends with whom he kept close contact for over half a century These letters should be regarded on par with his other creative accomplishments Pinter was a fascinating letter writer whose letters reveal thoughts at the time of writing often in abrupt most colorful idiomatic language His Appointment Diaries cannot reveal what actually occurred during his meetings but they do provide a guide to what he did on a daily basis and whom he met Memories from his friends his professional colleagues cricket players and his second wife Antonia Fraser illuminate Pinter's personality and actions Pinter's first literary love was poetry and unlike most other Pinter studies this one gives attention to his neglected poetic output that often reveals the real Pinter and the enigma that is at the heart of every great artist Three More Screenplays by Preston Sturges Preston Sturges,1998-08-29 Preston Sturges 1898 1959 was a member of Hollywood's gifted royalty producing a remarkable number of films In this third volume of scripts by one of Hollywood's wisest and wittiest filmmakers the focus is on screenplays written but not directed by Sturges This volume will be the perfect accompaniment to the re release of Sturges films on home video 8 illustrations Five Screenplays Charles Deemer,2002-04-23 Five screenplays by Charles Deemer The Films of Harold Pinter Steven H.
