Women Artists and Writers B. J. Elliott, Jo-Ann Wallace, 2014-06-03 In this beautifully illustrated and provocative study Bridget Elliott and Jo Ann Wallace reappraise women's literary and artistic contribution to Modernism Through comparative case studies including Natalie Barney Virginia Woolf Vanessa Bell and Gertrude Stein the authors examine the ways in which women responded to Modernism and created their artistic identity and how their work has been positioned in relation to that of men Bringing together women's studies visual arts and literature Women Writers and Artists makes an important contribution to 20th century cultural history It puts forward a powerful case against the academic division of cultural production into departments of Art History and English Studies which has served to marginalize the work of female Modernists      Women Artists and Artisans in Venice and the Veneto, 1400-1750 Tracy Cooper, 2025-10-01 This book of essays highlights the lives careers and works of art of women artists and artisans in Venice and its territories from the fourteenth to the eighteenth centuries The collection represents the first fruits of an ongoing research program launched by Save Venice Inc Women Artists of Venice directed by Professor Tracy Cooper of Temple University in conjunction with a conservation program led by Melissa Conn Director of Save Venice Inc Inspired by a growing body of research that has resurrected female artists and artisans in Florence and Bologna during the last decade the Save Venice project seeks to recover the history of women artists and artisans born or active in the Venetian republic in the early modern period Topics include their contemporary reception or historical silence and current scholarship positioning them as individuals and as an underrepresented category in the history of art and cultural heritage      Five Women Artists Plus Five Women Artists Plus (Group of artists), 1994      International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon, 2024-09-19 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women s professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully

Professional Women Painters in Nineteenth-Century Scotland Janice

Helland,2019-06-11 This title was first published in 2000 Women in the 19th century have long been presented as the angel in the house The author re writes this history by investigating the life and working conditions of a number of middle class women who sought to establish themselves as professional artists in Scotland Contrary to the orthodox view preoccupied with oppression and difficulty the author demonstrates that women artists of the period were independent producers teachers and travellers alert to changes in taste and fashion They derived great pleasure from their work and enjoyed the benefits of women working together forming their own and joining existing professional associations The book is not biographical but elaborates on the life and working conditions of middle class artists by discussing their work in terms of economic and social history

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia

Hooker,Caroline Turner,2022-11-08 Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia s Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia s foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history The essays in this book accept Yuliman s challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia s artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic The inclusion of one of Yuliman s most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner The book s contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia s contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally
