Operation Jedburgh Colin Beavan, 2007-04-24 A thrilling account of one of the most important covert operations of World War II In 1943 less than a year before D Day nearly three hundred American British and French soldiers shadow warriors parachuted deep behind enemy lines in France as part of the covert Operation Jedburgh Working with the beleaguered French Resistance the Jeds launched a stunningly effective guerrilla campaign against the Germans in preparation for the Normandy invasion Colin Beavan whose grandfather helped direct Operation Jedburgh for the Office of Strategic Services draws on scores of interviews with the surviving Jeds and their families to tell the thrilling story of the rowdy daredevils who carried out America's first special forces missions forever changing the way Americans wage war The Routledge History of Global War and Society Matthew S. Muehlbauer, David J. Ulbrich, 2018-02-21 The Routledge History of Global War and Society offers a sweeping introduction to the most significant research on the causes, experiences and impacts of war throughout history. This collection of twenty-seven essays by leading historians demonstrates how war and society studies have dramatically expanded the chronological, geographic and thematic breadth of the field of military history. Each chapter addresses the ways in which recent scholarship has integrated cultural, ethical, environmental, medical and ideological factors to explain both conventional conflicts and genocide, terrorism and other forms of mass violence. The broad scope of the collection makes it the perfect primer for scholars and students seeking to understand the complex interactions of warfare and those affecting and affected by conflict.

The Resistance Matthew Cobb, 2009-06-01 The French resistance to Nazi occupation during World War II was a struggle in which ordinary people fought for their liberty despite terrible odds and horrifying repression. Hundreds of thousands of Frenchmen and women carried out an armed struggle against the Nazis, producing underground anti-fascist publications and supplying the Allies with vital intelligence. Based on hundreds of French eye-witness accounts and including recently released archival material, The Resistance uses dramatic personal stories to take the reader on one of the great adventures of the 20th century. The tale begins with the catastrophic Fall of France in 1940 and shatters the myth of a unified Resistance created by General de Gaulle. In fact, De Gaulle never understood the Resistance and sought to use, dominate and channel it to his own ends. Brave men and women set up organisations only to be betrayed or hunted down by the Nazis and to die in front of the firing squad or in the concentration camps. Over time, the true story of the Resistance got blurred and distorted; its heroes and conflicts were forgotten as the movement became a myth. By turns exciting, tragic and insightful, The Resistance reveals how one of the most powerful modern myths came to be forged and provides a gripping account of one of the most striking events in the 20th century.

I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall, 2020-07-08 This book is about WAR, not the causes and results, not the planning and the campaigns, not the artillery and the bombs. It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants, the horrifying experiences of civilians, the devastation of cities and villages, the killing and the dying, the glory leading to revulsion and guilt, and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul. It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims. It discusses antisemitism, racism and war itself from biblical perspectives. It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples, the mental instability of the survivors and the loss and grief of those on the home front. In war, how can men and women carry out the actions that they do? As Viktor Frankl writes: 'After all, man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz however he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord's Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips
