Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges

Inclusive Language in the Church Nancy A. Hardesty, 1987-01-01 Inclusive Language in the Church is a good introduction to questions about language use today that fairly addresses the issues of the language debate Nancy Hardesty sets out to convince us that inclusive language is appropriate in Christian theology and worship

A Book of Reformed Prayers Howard L. Rice, Lamar Williamson, 1998-01-01 Rice and Williamson have done a remarkable job of sifting through five centuries of the recorded prayers by Reformed Christians to produce this collection The Presbyterian Outlook

Render Unto God James Newton Poling, 2012-03-01 What marks principles and values from our study of Jesus can guide our reflections about the church and its witness in a world of economic injustice What kinds of principles ought to be part of an ecclesiology in a world where family violence is epidemic So asks author James Poling in his exploration of the role of faith and religious practice as a resource for those who are economically vulnerable to domestic violence In this groundbreaking work Poling focuses his research on women and children in working class and poor communities of three cultures analyzing the forces that define and sustain economic vulnerability and detailing how such vulnerability affects the daily lives of people within these communities He looks at how the church can function as a source of healing and empowerment for persons who are trapped by domestic violence and economic vulnerability and develops models for prevention of violence and of practical ministry for pastoral care of the victims and perpetrators

The Constructive Promise of Schleiermacher's Theology Shelli M. Poe, 2021-04-08 This volume demonstrates how Friedrich Schleiermacher's thought can be used to address contemporary doctrinal refinement and development Taking a constructive approach Shelli M Poe weaves Schleiermacher's theology together with current scholarship in feminism womanism ecotheology and queer theology While Schleiermacher is widely acclaimed as the progenitor of modern theology Poe is one of the first to use his work as a springboard to refine contemporary doctrine This book demonstrates the promise of Schleiermacher's mature work for contemporary constructive forms of theology

Women and International Human Rights Law Kelly Dawn Askin, Dorean Koenig, 2023-04-17 For in depth coverage of gender issues in human rights law from theory and cultural practices to legal instruments and the case law of international tribunals this major three volume work is without peer More than 100 leading authorities in the field offer trenchant analyses of problems and solutions crimes and abuses available recourses areas of empowerment the entire spectrum of women's rights discussed at a level of detail and legal awareness unavailable in any other single source Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The print edition is available as a set of three volumes 9781571050946 Resources for Preaching and Worship - Year B Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 2002-01-01 This is the first of a three volume lectionary resource that weaves together a rich tapestry of quotations meditations poems and prayers by classic and contemporary spiritual writers Each volume links with the lectionary readings for Sundays and for important festival days such as Christmas Easter and Pentecost Anyone who is concerned with preaching on Sunday or leading study groups or prayer groups during the course of the week can find here something to feed personal reflection to stimulate ideas for sermon themes and to provide stories and poems as well as prayers that in some way relate to the biblical readings for the day concerned Sacred Song in America Stephen A. Marini, 2003 In Sacred Song in America Stephen A. Marini explores the full range of American sacred music and demonstrates how an understanding of the meanings and functions of this musical expression can contribute to a greater understanding of religious culture Marini examines the role of sacred song across the United States from the musical traditions of Native Americans and the Hispanic peoples of the Southwest to the Sacred Harp singers of the rural South and the Jewish music revival to the music of the Mormon Catholic and Black churches Including chapters on New Age and Neo Pagan music gospel music and hymnals as well as interviews with iconic composers of religious music Sacred Song in America pursues a historical musicological and theoretical inquiry into the complex roles of ritual music in the public religious culture of contemporary America Ancient-Future Time () Robert E. Webber, 2004-10-01 Millions of Christians worldwide follow the liturgical Christian calendar in their worship services and in their own personal devotions The seasons of the Christian year connect believers of diverse backgrounds and offer the sense of unity Jesus desired Robert Webber believes that we can get even more out of the Christian calendar He contends that through its rich theological meanings the Christian year can become a cycle for evangelism and spiritual formation He offers pastors church leaders and those of the younger evangelical mind set practical steps to help achieve this end including preaching texts and worship themes for Lent Easter Pentecost Advent and Christmas Women and International Human Rights Law Dorean M. Koenig, 1999 Cohen The American Organist, 1991 Christian Spirituality John Meyendorff, 1989 A multivolume series with more than 500 contributing scholars worldwide presenting the spiritual wisdom of the human race in its historical unfolding from prehistoric times through the great religions to the meeting of traditions at the present A Bishop's Ministry David Tustin, 2013-09 Few books on episcopacy deal with the inner life or practical problems of being a bishop but this volume gives an inside view It describes the initial challenge of adjusting to a new role with little preparation and indicates the main ongoing pressures This account combines personal experience with theological reflection Convinced that being comes before doing David Tustin first considers vital elements in the bishop's personal way of life inner life outer lifestyle home and hospitality and careful use of time The rationale of what bishops actually do is then examined in seven key areas together with suggestions about translating ideals into reality

teamwork caring for people within and beyond the church conducting worship spreading the Christian message sending new ministers building bridges in society and within the church fostering visible Christian unity Emphasis is laid on bishops sharing their ministry with others and reaching out beyond the church This book offers examples of good practice It draws together resources useful for new bishops including excerpts from classic writers Gregory the Great and Bernard of Clairvaux and pointers to an ecumenical range of contemporary material unlikely to be in the hands of most readers It is relevant to all who share in senior church leadership A bibliography and index are included The closing section argues that bishops no less than other ministers need good initial training periodic review and continuing professional development It also looks at how bishops can adjust to active retirement Celebrate Life Peter Young,1999 Created to help people bridge the gap between home and church Celebrate Life demonstrates the importance of rituals in both places Peter Young offers rituals that will aid families in transmitting their faith from one generation to another and will help in times of trouble Home celebrations are included for birthdays graduations anniversaries moving to a new home and retirement with healing ceremonies presented for illness miscarriage death and separation divorce Rituals for the church include those marking baptism or infant dedication and times of pain and trauma An Angel In The Flame Gene Wilkes,2013-07-29 This is a gripping tale of two saviors Two men whom God chose to rescue his people Two men anyone familiar with history would call heroes among their people Two men who represent the best and worst the human experience have to offer One was the Arnold Schwarzenegger of his day The other was a humble carpenter who led no army or held no office yet in his death caused a cosmic ripple that touches the edges of our universe today Both are part of God s story to capture the hearts of men and women with his love but only one lived out God s ultimate purpose for his life This tale is about Samson and Jesus Daughters of Sarah ,1987
