truths and outright lies that have shaped the still dominant but largely mythical version of what happened in the White House during those harrowing two weeks of secret Cuban missile crisis deliberations More than a half century after the event it is surely time to demonstrate once and for all that Robert F Kennedy's Thirteen Days and the personal memoirs of other ExComm members cannot be taken seriously as historically accurate accounts of the ExComm meetings This book from the first historian to listen to and evaluate the White House tapes made during the crisis does exactly that Stern is not alone in questioning the precision of the transcripts offered but he has made the most painstaking attempt to clarify what was really said and done Journal of American History      The Politics of Loss and Trauma in Contemporary Israeli Cinema Raz Yosef, 2012-05-23 The last decade has marked the growing visibility and worldwide interest in Israeli cinema Films such as Walk on Water Or My Treasure Beaufort and Waltz with Bashir have been commercially and critically successful both in Europe and the United States and have won a number of prestigious international awards This book examines for the first time the new ideological and aesthetic trends in contemporary Israeli cinema More specifically it critically explores the complex and crucial role of Israeli cinema in remembering and restaging traumas and losses that were denied entry into the shared national past One of the most striking phenomena in contemporary Israeli cinema is the number and scope of films dealing with past traumatic events events that were repressed or insufficiently mourned such as the memory of the Holocaust traumas from wars and terrorist attacks and the losses entailed by the experience of immigration Current Israeli cinema exposes and highlights a radical discontinuity between history and memory Traumatic events from Israeli society's past are represented as the private memory of distinct social groups soldiers immigrants women queers and not as collective memory as a lived and practiced tradition that conditions Israeli society This detachment from national collective memory pulls the films into a world marked by a persistent blurring of the historical context and by private and subjective impressions a timeless world of dreams hallucinations and myths These groups feel duty bound to remember the past recasting repressed memories through the cinema in order to return and to give meaning to their identity      Shining Sun: In Memory of 'Allamah Tabataba'i Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Husayni Tihrani, 2011-01-01 Shining Sun is a tribute to the life and thought of the renowned Islamic scholar Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i written soon after his death by one of his students Shining Sun includes an overview of Tabataba'i's life and transcriptions of discussions between Tabataba'i and his students These discussions cover history philosophy mysticism theology and the Qur'an Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i 1902-1981 commonly referred to as the most learned Allamah was a prominent Muslim scholar who breathed new life into the Shi'a seminaries by establishing courses on the interpretation of the Qur'an and by introducing a novel method of Qur'anic interpretation He was a master of Islamic philosophy and a model of spirituality Allamah Tabataba'i is undoubtedly the major Shi'a thinker of modern times and his impact on Persian philosophy and theology is incomparable Anyone who approaches his work is bound to be impressed by it and the fertility of his thought can be seen in the considerable
