Flayle Payne:

Pioneers of Old Monocacy Grace L. Tracey, John Philip Dern, 1987 This is a definitive account of the land and the people of Old Monocacy in early Frederick County Maryland The outgrowth of a project begun by Grace L Tracey and completed by John P Dern it presents a detailed account of landholdings in that part of western Maryland that eventually became Frederick County At the same time it provides a history of the inhabitants of the area from the early traders and explorers to the farsighted investors and speculators from the original Quaker settlers to the Germans of central Frederick County In essence the book has a dual focus First it attempts to locate and describe the land of the early settlers This is done by means of a superb series of plat maps drawn to scale from original surveys and based both on certificates of survey and patents These show in precise configurations the exact locations of the various grants and lots the names of owners and occupiers the dates of surveys and patents and the names of contiguous land owners Second it identifies the early settlers and inhabitants of the area carefully following them through deeds wills and inventories judgment records and rent rolls Finally in meticulously compiled appendices it provides a chronological list of surveys between 1721 and 1743 an alphabetical list of surveys giving dates page reference text and maps and patent references a list of taxables for 1733 34 and a list of the early German settlers of Frederick County showing their religion their location dates of arrival and their earliest records in the county
