Fleeing the Universal Carl Rapp, 1998-01-01 Rapp mounts a devastating critique against the notion that literary and cultural theory since the 1960s has succeeded in effecting or at least reporting both the demise of philosophy and the emergence of a genuinely post philosophical culture      The Age of Promiscuity Doru Pop, 2018-11-15 This book presents an original and engaging look at contemporary popular culture opening with the provocative idea that this is a day and age of complete exhaustion of ideas images stories and myths Questioning the effects of content recycling in cinema and other media the author further elaborates on the repurposing of cultural junk the reassembling of narratives and myths The thought provoking hypothesis proposed in this research is that we have entered an age of cultural promiscuity By analyzing the mutations of myth making practices and connecting them with larger cultural manifestations the author explains these transformations as integral to the development of a myth illogical imagination Cinematic and mythological representations in mainstream Hollywood films have reached a point of amalgamation with no return which marks the beginning of a fourth age of representations where signs and meanings are manifested in illogical permutations This is more explicit in films that commingle aliens cowboys undead American presidents and zombie nazis joining together in the same narrative ghosts werewolves and vampires aggregating disjointed storylines and historical fake facts all coalesced in an orgy of empty burlesque and infantile masquerades This interdisciplinary research combines cultural studies film criticism art and myth interpretations bringing into the debate multiple concepts from related fields such as critical theory and media criticism The book also opens up to innovative approaches from a wide array of academic disciplines offering researchers students and those fascinated by the transformations happening in contemporary cinema an interpretative tool based on a revised dialectic approach The conclusion is that we are now victims of a zombie semiotics Meaning making in contemporary culture politics and aesthetics is dominated by a process of incessant desecration of significations specific to the total mishmash of representations analyzed here      Fleeing the Universal Carl Rapp, 1998-04-23 Fleeing the Universal takes issue with the popular view that contemporary literary and cultural theory has brilliantly effected or at least brilliantly reported the demise of philosophy and the emergence of a new post philosophical culture It offers a critique of the various options presented by post rational critics and theorists and at the same time argues for the superiority of speculative philosophy to all these options Further it demonstrates that the chief problems with post rationalism were already seen before our time by two speculative philosophers Hegel and Santayana both of whose systems of philosophy are primarily intended to avoid the problems that beset the critique of reason Fleeing the Universal criticizes the arguments and methods of deconstruction the new pragmatism and New Historicism and suggests that the alternatives to post philosophy developed by Hegel in the early nineteenth century and by Santayana in the early twentieth century have not been superseded by any theory associated with the culture of postmodernism or the analytical techniques of poststructuralism      International Bibliography of Book
