Economic Conditions in the Frontier Territories of Jammu and Kashmir Under the Dogras Amar Singh Chohan,1994     Britain and Tibet 1765-1947 Julie G. Marshall,2005 This bibliography is a record of British relations with Tibet in the period 1765 to 1947 As such it also involves British relations with Russia and China and with the Himalayan states of Ladakh Lahul and Spiti Kumaon and Garhwal Nepal Sikkim Bhutan and Assam in so far as British policy towards these states was affected by her desire to establish relations with Tibet It also covers a subject of some importance in contemporary diplomacy It was the legacy of unresolved problems concerning Tibet and its borders bequeathed to India by Britain in 1947 which led to border disputes and ultimately to war between India and China in 1962 These borders are still in dispute today It also provides background information to Tibet s claims to independence an issue of current importance The work is divided into a number of sections and subsections based on chronology geography and events The introductions to each of the sections provide a condensed and informative history of the period and place the books and article in their historical context Most entries are also annotated This work is therefore both a history and a bibliography of the subject and provides a rapid entry into a complex area for scholars in the fields of international relations and military history as well as Asian history     Trade and Contemporary Society Along the Silk Road Jacqueline H. Fewkes,2008-10-27 This book analyses the trade system in Ladakh India a busy entrep t for Silk Route trade between Central and South Asia The author s research combines anthropological historical and archaeological methods of investigation to present a cultural history of South Central Asia     Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, New Delhi,1994-07     Kashmir as a Borderland Antía Mato Bouzas,2025-10-01 Kashmir as a Borderland The Politics of Space and Belonging across the Line of Control examines the Kashmir dispute from both sides of the Line of Control LoC and within the theoretical frame of border studies It draws on the experiences of those living in these territories such as divided families traders cultural and social activists Kashmir is a borderland that is a context for spatial transformations where the resulting interactions can be read as a process of becoming rather than of being The analysis of this borderland shows how the conflict is manifested in territory in specific locations with a geopolitical meaning evidencing the discrepancy between representation and the living The author puts forward the concept of belonging as a useful category for investigating more inclusive political spaces

Jammu and Kashmir State: Kashmir region ,2003     Indian Books in Print ,2003     International Books in Print ,1986     Islam and Tibet - Interactions along the Musk Routes Anna Akasoy,2016-12-14 The first encounters between the Islamic world and Tibet took place in the course of the expansion of the Abbasid Empire in the eighth century Military and political contacts went along with an increasing interest in the other side Cultural exchanges and the transmission of knowledge were facilitated by a trading network with musk constituting one of the main trading goods from the Himalayas largely through India From the thirteenth century onwards the spread of the Mongol Empire from the Western borders of Europe through Central Asia to China facilitated further exchanges The significance of these interactions has been long ignored in scholarship This volume represents a major contribution to the subject bringing together new studies by an interdisciplinary group of international scholars They explore for the first time the multi layered contacts between the Islamic world Central Asia and the Himalayas from the eighth century until the present day in a variety of fields including geography cartography art history medicine history of science and education literature hagiography archaeology and anthropology
