Happy Homes And The Hearts That Make Them 1889:

With a Book in Their Hands Manuel M. Martín-Rodríguez, 2014-06-30 First Place Winner of the 2015 International Latino Book Award for Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Literary history is a history of reading What happens during the act of reading is the subject of the branch of literary scholarship known as reader response theory Does the text guide the reader Does the reader operate independently of the text Questions like these shape the approach of the essays in this book edited by a scholar known for his groundbreaking work in using reader response theory as a window into Chicana and Chicano literature Manuel M Martín Rodríguez has overseen several research projects aimed at documenting Chicana and Chicano reading practices and experiences Here he gathers diverse and passionate accounts of reading drawn from that research For many books served as refuges from the sorrows of a childhood marked by violence or parental abandonment Several of the contributors here salute the roles of teachers in introducing poetry and stories into their lives The Families' Civil War Holly A. Pinheiro Jr., 2022-06-15 This book tells the stories of freeborn northern African Americans in Philadelphia struggling to maintain families while fighting against racial discrimination Taking a long view from 1850 to the 1920s Holly A Pinheiro Jr shows how Civil War military service worsened already difficult circumstances due to its negative effects on family finances living situations minds and bodies At least seventy nine thousand African Americans served in northern USCT regiments Many including most of the USCT veterans examined here remained in the North and constituted a sizable population of racial minorities living outside the former Confederacy In The Families Civil War Holly A Pinheiro Jr provides a compelling account of the lives of USCT soldiers and their entire families but also argues that the Civil War was but one engagement in a longer war for racial justice By 1863 the Civil War provided African American Philadelphians with the ability to expand the theater of war beyond their metropolitan and racially oppressive city into the South to defeat Confederates and end slavery as armed combatants But the war at home waged by white northerners never ended Civil War soldiers are sometimes described together as men who experienced roughly the same thing during the war However this book acknowledges how race and class differentiated men's experiences too Pinheiro examines the intersections of gender race class and region to fully illuminate the experiences of northern USCT soldiers and their families Women in English Social History, 1800-1914: without special title Barbara Kanner, 1987 Finding List of Books and Periodicals in the Central Library ..., 1893 Women in English Social History, 1800-1914 Barbara Kanner, 1990 "The Art-Journal and Fine Art Publishing in Victorian England, 1850-1880" Katherine Haskins, 2017-07-05 Focusing on an era that both inherited and irretrievably altered the form and the content of earlier art production The Art Journal and Fine Art Publishing in Victorian England 1850-1880 argues that fine art practices and the audiences and markets for them were influenced by the media culture of art publishing and journalism in substantial and formative ways perhaps more than at any other time in the history of English art The study centers on forms of Victorian picture making and the art knowledge systems defining them and draws on the histories of art literature journalism and publishing The historical example employed in the book is that of the more than 800 steel plate prints after paintings published in the London based Art Journal between 1850 and 1880 The cultural phenomenon of the Art Journal print is shown to be a key connector in mid Victorian art appreciation by drawing out specific tropes of likeness This study also examines the important links between paint and print the aesthetic values and domestic aspirations of the Victorian middle class and the inextricable intertwining of fine art and trade publishing
