Marvin Hewitt Father would enter into all the plans and go down with us to the range to practise with rifle or shotgun and when we came back we would go over every detail of the trip with him revelling in his praise when he felt that we had acquitted ourselves well Father was ever careful to correct statements to the effect that he was a crack shot He would explain how little being one had to do with success and achievement as a hunter Perseverance skill in tracking quick vision endurance stamina and a cool head coupled with average ability as a marksman produced far greater results than mere skill with a rifle unaccompanied to any marked extent by the other attributes It was the sum of all these qualities each above the average but none emphasized to an extraordinary degree that accounted for father s great success in the hunting field He would point out many an excellent shot at a target who was of no use against game Sometimes this would be due to lack of nerve Father himself was equally cool and unconcerned whether his quarry was a charging lion or a jack rabbit with when it came to the question of scoring a hit the resultant advantage in the size of the former as a target In other instances a good man at the range was not so good in the field because he was accustomed to shooting under conventional and regulated conditions and fell down when it came to shooting under disadvantageous circumstances if he had been running and were winded if he were hungry or wet or tired or feeling the sun if he were uncertain of the wind or the range Sometimes of course a crack shot possesses all the other qualities such is the case with Stewart Edward White whom Happy Hunting Grounds
