early 1960s to the mid 1970s was one of the most turbulent periods in American history The U S military was engaged in its longest costliest overseas conflict while the home front was torn apart by riots protests and social activism In the midst of these upheavals an underground and countercultural press emerged giving activists an extraordinary forum for a range of imaginative expressions Poetry held a prominent place in this alternative media The poem was widely viewed by activists as an inherently anti establishment form of free expression and poets were often in the vanguards of political activism Hearts and Minds is the first book length study of the poems of the Black Liberation Women s Liberation and GI Resistance movements during the Vietnam era Drawing on recent cultural and literary theories Bibby investigates the significance of images tropes and symbols of human bodies in activist poetry Many key political slogans of the period black is beautiful off our backs foreground the body Bibby demonstrates that figurations of bodies marked important sites of social and political struggle Although poetry played such an important role in Vietnam era activism literary criticism has largely ignored most of this literature Bibby recuperates the cultural historical importance of Vietnam era activist poetry highlighting both its relevant contexts and revealing how it engaged political and social struggles that continue to motivate contemporary history Arguing for the need to read cultural history through these underground texts Hearts and Minds offers new grounds for understanding the recent history of American poetry and the role poetry has played as a medium of imaginative political expression Irregular Serials and Annuals R. The Romance of the Lyric in Nineteenth-Century Women's Poetry Lee Christine O'Brien,2012-10-05 The Romance of the Lyric in Nineteenth Century Women s Poetry Experiments in Form offers a new account of the nature of the lyric as nineteenth century women poets developed the form It offers fresh assessments of the imaginative and aesthetic complexity of women s poetry The monograph seeks to redefine the range and cultural significance of women s writing using the work of poets who have not heretofore been part of critical accounts of nineteenth century lyric poetry These new voices are set beside new readings of the poetry of established figures for example Christina Rossetti s Goblin Market and Augusta Webster s Medea in Athens and Circe The monograph draws substantially on the poetry of Rosamund Marriott Watson who was lost to literary history before the restoration of her oeuvre through the scholarly and critical work of Professor Linda K Hughes to make the case that once neglected and lost voices provide new ways of determining the cultural centrality of women and the poetry they produced in one of the richest periods of poetic experimentation in the Western literary tradition This monograph contends that Watson s poetry and prose provide new ways of analyzing the complex and frequently transgressive nature of the lyric engagement of women with folklore and myth and with the growing understanding in the nineteenth century of the fragmented fluid self in general and of the writer in particular New Serial Titles ,1989 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Irregular Serials & Annuals ,1976
