Islamic Modernism and the Re-Enchantment of the Sacred in the Age of History Monica M. Ringer, 2020-09-04 This book studies the complex relationship of religion to modernity and argues that modernity should be understood as the consequence not the cause of the new intellectual landscape of the 19th century Shows how the adoption of historicism in the 19th century engendered Islamic modernism as a theological reform movement

Training the Translator Paul Kussmaul, 1995-01-01 This book begins by investigating through the use of think aloud protocols the mental processes of students when they translate The creative and successful processes observed can be used directly for teaching purposes while the unsuccessful ones can serve to find out where remedial training is needed The book then goes on to discuss methods for improving a translator's competence. The strategies offered are based on the pragmatic and semantic analysis of texts from a functional point of view and they include such practical matters as the use of dictionaries and the evaluation of translations and error analysis. The book is intended for teachers in translator training institutions but it can also be used by students for self training.

Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman, 2012-02-01 In Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman discusses the possibilities struggles and complexities involved in reforming today's schools. Drawing from his own experiences at the Harmony Education Center a progressive educational center he helped establish in 1990 Goodman offers a vision of how to persevere at a time when many progressive educators are feeling discouraged. He focuses on practical ideas for reform such as establishing school autonomy creating democratic structures rituals and values upon which school reform discourse can be generated and by addressing the current conservative agenda how to influence what happens in our nation's public schools. By situating school reform within a progressive history of Western society the author offers valuable insights and ideas that are alternatives to both the conservative and the radical left analyses of schools and society.
