

Hanoi, adieu

A bittersweet memoir of French Indochina

Mandaley Perkins

Hanoi Adieu

Mark Steyvers

Hanoi Adieu:

Hanoi Adieu Mandaley Perkins, 2006 Michel L. Herpinier arrived in Hanoi as a teenager in the years before World War II. He fell in love with the country and the people but gradually became aware that not all those around him felt the same way. Michel's story brilliantly recreated by his stepdaughter Mandaley Perkins is inevitably entwined with the history of Vietnam: the rise of the nationalist movement, the Japanese occupation, the revolution by the Vietminh, and the United States' refusal to aid a colonial regime and the chaotic and tragic aftermath of World War II. In the heat and passion of the time, nothing and no one can be read on the surface. Hanoi Adieu is an intimate and compelling journey through the exotic and tumultuous final decades of French Indochina as well as a moving story of love and loss. Shortlisted for the 2006 New South Wales Premier's Award for Non-fiction, an exquisitely beautiful and most beguiling story. Judges' comments: Hanoi Adieu Mandaley Perkins, 2012.

The Resilient City in World War II Simo Laakkonen, J. R. McNeill, Richard P. Tucker, Timo Vuorisalo, 2019-05-27 The fate of towns and cities stands at the center of the environmental history of World War II. Broad swaths of cityscapes were destroyed by the bombing of targets such as transport hubs, electrical grids, and industrial districts, and across Europe, Asia, and the Americas, urban environments were transformed by the massive mobilization of human and natural resources to support the conflict. But at the same time, the war saw remarkable resilience among the human and non-human residents of cities. Foregrounding the concept of urban resilience, this collection uncovers the creative survival strategies that city dwellers of all kinds turned to in the midst of environmental devastation. As the first major study at the intersection of environmental, urban, and military history, The Resilient City in World War II lays the groundwork for an improved understanding of rapid change in urban environments and how societies may adapt. The Making and Unmaking of Colonial Cities Julia C. Obert, 2023 Obert explores the legacies of colonialism, racial segregation, and oppression in four post-colonial cities: Belfast, Windhoek, Bridgetown, and Hanoi. She uses local literary texts to demonstrate how bodies can move against repressive power through small gestures of reclamation. Rice Wars in Colonial Vietnam Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2014-02-21 This book offers the first detailed English language examination of the Great Vietnamese Famine of 1945, which left at least a million dead, and links it persuasively to the largely unexpected Viet Minh seizure of power only months later. Drawing on extensive research in French archives, Geoffrey C. Gunn offers an important new interpretation of Japanese Vichy French wartime economic exploitation of Vietnam's agricultural potential. He analyzes successes and failures of French colonial rice programs and policies from the early 1900s to 1945, drawing clear connections between colonialism and agrarian unrest in the 1930s and the rise of the Viet Minh in the 1940s. Gunn asks whether the famine signaled a loss of the French administration's mandate of heaven or whether the overall dire human condition was the determining factor in facilitating communist victory in August 1945. In the broader sweep of Vietnamese history, including the rise of the communist party, the picture that emerges is not only one of local victimhood at the hands of outsiders, French and in turn Japanese, but the enormous agency on the part of the Vietnamese themselves to achieve moral victory over injustice against all odds no matter how controversial tragic and contested the outcome As the author clearly demonstrates colonial era development strategies and contests also had their postwar sequels in the American war just as land land reform and subsistence sustainable development issues persist into the present The Road to Dien Bien Phu Christopher Goscha,2022-03-29 On May 7 1954 when the bullets stopped and the air stilled in Dien Bien Phu there was no doubt that Vietnam could fight a mighty colonial power and win After nearly a decade of struggle a nation forged in the crucible of war had achieved a victory undreamed of by any other national liberation movement This book tells the story of how Ho Chi Minh turned a ragtag guerrilla army into a modern fighting force capable of bringing down the formidable French army Vietnam Economic Times ,2007 From Baseballs to Bombshells Art Graham,2018-04-04 Growing technology and affluence rock n roll baseball and muscle cars all told through the youth and early adult years of a small town Montana boy and war veteran This is a history of the glorious 50s and 60s in America It is a history also of politicians the indecency of segregation and war and the struggle for racial equality and peace A history of two great nations Intertwined is the unique history of Vietnam and the Vietnamese long struggle for independence It is a rendering also of the unique culture of Vietnam with fascinating stories of emperors within the walls of a Forbidden City Included in the book is a review of the relationship of two nations one mighty and one resistant ultimately entangled in a catastrophic war Nearly fifty nine thousand Americans lost to family friends wives and lovers More than two million Vietnamese soldiers and civilians perished in a war that could not be won Alfred Raquez and the French Experience of the Far East, 1898-1906 William L. Gibson,2021-05-10 A Study of an Enigmatic Travel Writer and His Work in Colonial Asia during the fin de siècle In 1898 a man calling himself Alfred Raquez appeared in Indochina claiming to be a writer travelling the world to escape unfathomable sorrows back home in France He published thousands of pages of highly detailed travel accounts that open a unique window onto the European presence in the Far East He travelled far into the Zomia of upland Southeast Asia a peripheral zone populated by people who lived beyond official state power Raquez explored the nightlife of Shanghai and operated a popular cabaret in Hanoi An amateur anthropologist he helped mount expositions of colonial material in Hanoi and Marseille Raquez met people in the highest circles of belle époque Indochina as well as the kings of Annam Cambodia Laos and Siam And yet despite the charm and the ebullience and the erudition through all his travels and rising fame the man kept a secret that was so mortifying that even his closest companions would not learn of it until after his death in 1907 In truth Alfred Raquez did not exist A fascinating read for students and scholars of colonial Southeast Asia and European colonialism more broadly Marigold James Hersher,2012-01-11 Marigold presents the first rigorously documented in depth story of one of the Vietnam War's last great mysteries the secret peace initiative codenamed Marigold that sought to end the war in 1966 The initiative failed the war dragged on for another seven years and this episode sank into history as an unresolved controversy Antiwar critics claimed President Johnson had bungled or worse deliberately sabotaged a breakthrough by bombing Hanoi on the eve of a planned secret U S North Vietnamese encounter in Poland Yet LBJ and top aides angrily insisted that Poland never had authority to arrange direct talks and Hanoi was not ready to negotiate This book uses new evidence from long hidden communist sources to show that in fact Poland was authorized by Hanoi to open direct contacts and that Hanoi had committed to entering talks with Washington It reveals LBJ s personal role in bombing Hanoi as he utterly disregarded the pleas of both the Polish and his own senior advisors The historical implications of missing this opportunity are immense Marigold might have ended the war years earlier saving thousands of lives and dramatically changed U S political history
