Hard Looks Masculinities Spectatorship And Contemporary Consumption:

Hard Looks Sean Nixon, 2024-11-01 Hard Looks is a fascinating examination of the new masculine imagery that has developed in relation to popular consumption over the last decade the author skilfully investigates the development of this new man imagery and its relationship to contemporary formations of masculinity and masculine culture Focusing on the emergence in the mid 1980s of a wide range of new representations of masculinity in the retail advertising and publishing industries the author analyses the practices and derives used to underpin the production and circulation of this imagery The author traces the novelty of these commercially produced representations and analyses their role in producing a space for an ambivalent masculine sexual identity Drawing strongly on contemporary cultural theory Hard Looks combines stimulating theoretical debates on representation and cultural identity with authoritative empirical research on the media and retail industries This lively and innovative study will prove essential reading for sociologists interested in the study of men and masculinities and students of culture media and gender studies

The Embodied Performance of Gender

Jack Migdalek, 2014-10-24 Norms of embodied behaviour for males and females as promoted in mainstream Western public arenas of popular culture and the everyday continue to work overtly and covertly as definitive and restrictive barriers to the realm of possibilities of embodied gender expression and appreciation They serve to disempower and marginalize those not inclined to embody according to such dichotomous models This book explores the ramifications of the way our gendered sexed and culturally constructed bodies are situated toward notions of difference and highlights the need to safeguard the social and emotional well being of those who do not fit comfortably with dominant norms of masculine feminine behaviour as deemed appropriate to biological sex The book interrogates gender inequitable machinations of education and performance arts disciplines by which educators and arts practitioners train teach choreograph and direct those with whom they work and theorizes ways of broadening personal and social notions of possible aesthetic and acceptable embodiment for all persons regardless of biological sex or sexual orientation The author's own struggles as a performance artist educator and person in the everyday as well as the findings of empirical fieldwork with educators performance arts practitioners and high school students are employed to illustrate and advocate the need for self reflexive scrutiny of existing and hidden inequities regarding the embodiment of gender within one's own habitual perspectives taste and practices an increased focus on consumer lifestyles and attempts by publishers to identify and target a new woman Embodying identities Victor Jeleniewski Seidler, 2010-04-01 In the 1970s and 1980s identities seemed to be fixed through categories of class race ethnicity gender sexualities and religion These days we have begun to recognise the diversity fragmentation and fluidity of identities but how do we create and shape our own The book shapes a new language of social theory that allows people to embody their differences with a sense of dignity and self worth It draws on diverse traditions from Marx Weber and Durkheim as well as more recent traditions of critical theory and post structuralism and will be of interest to sociology politics social work philosophy and cultural studies students Fashion In Focus Tim Edwards, 2010-11-18 The study of fashion has exploded in recent decades yet what this all means or quite where it might take us is not clear This new book helps to bring fashion into focus with a comprehensive guide to the key theories perspectives and developments in the field Tim Edwards includes coverage of all the major theories of fashion including recent scholarship alongside subcultural analysis and an in depth look at production Individual topics include men s fashion masculinity and the suit women s fashion and the role of sexuality children the body and fashion the role of celebrity and designer label culture globalisation and the production of fashion Fashion in Focus is the ideal companion for students in the arts and social sciences especially those studying issues such as fashion gender sexuality and consumer culture Gender, Civic Culture and Consumerism Alan Kidd, David Nicholls, 1999-10-08 The labour movement in Lebanon Power on hold narrates the history of the Lebanese labour movement from the early twentieth century to today Bou Khater demonstrates that trade unionism in the country has largely been a failure for reasons including state interference tactical co optation and the strategic use of sectarianism by an oligarchic elite together with the structural weakness of a service based laissez faire economy Drawing on a vast body of Arabic language primary sources and difficult to access archives the book s conclusions are significant not only for trade unionism but also for new forms of workers organisations and social movements in Lebanon and beyond The Lebanese case study presented here holds significant implications for the wider Arab world and for comparative studies of labour This authoritative history of the labour movement in Lebanon is vital reading for scholars of trade unionism Lebanese politics and political economy White Masculinity in Crisis in Hollywood's Fin de Millennium Cinema Pete Deakin, 2019-10-15 White Masculinity in Crisis in Hollywood's Fin de Millennium Cinema claims that Hollywood cinema had a significant relationship with the millennial crisis of masculinity From Fight Club Fincher 1999 and American Psycho Harron 2000 to Office Space Judge 1999 The Matrix Wachowski s 1999 and American Beauty Mendes 1999 Pete Deakin attests that alongside the emergent crisis came a definitive body of some twenty five Hollywood crisis titles each film with a representational concern for the apparent masculine malaise Asking whether Hollywood helped create propel or sooth the very notion of the crisis of masculinity at this time Deakin engages with some important cultural questions how discursive or even authentic was it and more vitally whose actual crisis was this To this end scholars of film studies media studies gender studies history and sociology will find this book particularly useful Fashion Crimes Joanne Turney, 2019-07-25 Fashion is widely recognised as a site for social acceptance and rejection and as a signifier of personal identity What happens when people stray from appropriate dress codes or associate garments with respectability or deviance How does fashion relate to criminality In this interdisciplinary volume leading scholars propose new ways of seeing everyday dress and the body in public space Garments and individual or group wearers are used as case studies to explore the codification of clothing as criminal hoodies trench coats Norwegian Lustkoffe sweaters low slung trousers and Hip Hop styling are all untangled as garments with criminal significance The book questions the point at which morality as a form of social control meets criminality and suggests ways to renegotiate established dress codes and terms such as suitability and glamour through the study of what people wear in response to notions of criminality Gender and the Media Rosalind Gill, 2015-10-02 Written in a clear and accessible style with lots of examples from Anglo American media Gender and the Media offers a critical introduction to the study of gender in the media and an up to date assessment of the key issues and debates Eschewing a straightforwardly positive or negative assessment the book explores the contradictory character of contemporary gender representations where confident expressions of girl power sit alongside reports of epidemic levels of anorexia among young women moral panics about the impact on men of idealized representations of the six pack but near silence about the pervasive re sexualization of women s bodies along with a growing use of irony and playfulness that render critique extremely difficult The book looks in depth at five areas of media talk shows magazines news advertising and contemporary screen and paperback romances to examine how representations of women and men are changing in the twenty first century partly in response to feminist queer and anti racist critique Gender and the Media is also concerned with the theoretical tools available for analysing representations A range of approaches from semiotics to postcolonial theory are discussed and Gill asks how useful notions such as objectification backlash and positive images are for making sense of gender in today s Western media Finally Gender and the Media also raises questions about cultural politics namely what forms of critique and intervention are effective at a moment when ironic quotation marks seem to protect much media content from criticism and when much media content from Sex and the City to revenge adverts can be labelled postfeminist This is a book that will be of particular interest to students and scholars in gender and media studies as well as those in sociology and cultural studies more generally The Changing Consumer Alison Anderson, Kevin Meethan, R Steven Miles, Steven Miles, 2005-07-08 In a world undergoing rapid change this essential collection discusses why consumption has become so important and what role if any it plays in underpinning social economic and political transformation Advertising Myths Anne Cronin, 2012-11-12 Advertising is often portrayed negatively as corrupting a mythically pure relationship between people and things In Advertising Myths Anne Cronin argues that it is better understood as a matrix of transformation that performs divisions in the social order and arranges classificatory regimes Focusing on consumption controversies Cronin contends that advertising is constituted of circuits of belief that flow between practitioners clients regulators consumers and academics Controversies such as those over tobacco and alcohol advertising she argues distil these beliefs and articulate with programmes of social engineering aimed at altering consumption patterns This book will be essential reading for students and academics of advertising and consumption
