

college watch

A person in a dark suit is pushing a large, dark, irregularly shaped boulder up a steep, rocky mountain. The scene is set at sunrise or sunset, with a bright sun low on the horizon to the left, casting a warm, golden glow over the landscape. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds. The person is positioned on the right side of the frame, leaning against the boulder and pushing it upwards. The overall mood is one of determination and effort.

Tronto, 2013-04-12 A rethinking of American democracy that puts caring responsibilities at the center Americans now face a caring deficit there are simply too many demands on people's time for us to care adequately for our children elderly people and ourselves At the same time political involvement in the United States is at an all time low and although political life should help us to care better people see caring as unsupported by public life and deem the concerns of politics as remote from their lives Caring Democracy argues that we need to rethink American democracy as well as our fundamental values and commitments from a caring perspective What it means to be a citizen is to be someone who takes up the challenge how should we best allocate care responsibilities in society Joan Tronto argues that we need to look again at how gender race class and market forces misallocate caring responsibilities and think about freedom and equality from the standpoint of making caring more just The idea that production and economic life are the most important political and human concerns ignores the reality that caring for ourselves and others should be the highest value that shapes how we view the economy politics and institutions such as schools and the family Care is at the center of our human lives but Tronto argues it is currently too far removed from the concerns of politics Caring Democracy traces the reasons for this disconnection and argues for the need to make care not economics the central concern of democratic political life Celebrity, Aspiration and Contemporary Youth Heather Mendick, Aisha Ahmad, Kim Allen, Laura Harvey, 2018-02-22 Celebrity Aspiration and Contemporary Youth uses the lens of celebrity to explore how young people think about their futures under austerity Based on an interdisciplinary study the book offers fresh insights into contemporary youth aspirations and inequalities It helps us to understand young people's transitions into adulthood at a time of socio economic crisis Drawing on original data the authors examine what it means for young people to be forming their aspirations within the context of austere meritocracy The book addresses three central questions What kinds of futures do young people desire and imagine for themselves What is required of young people in the process of achieving these futures And how are inequalities embedded and reproduced within these Using young people's celebrity talk to explore their aspirations the authors challenge stereotypes of young people as a fame hungry get rich quick generation Instead they show how young people engage critically with celebrity and its discourses Key chapters focus on how young people talk about youth work authenticity success happiness money and fame in relation to their own lives and those of celebrities Each of these chapters contains a case study of an international celebrity including Beyoncé Will Smith Bill Gates Prince Harry and Kim Kardashian The authors conclude with possibilities for social change They show that celebrity offers an important way of working with young people to critically explore what futures are possible and for whom Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
