Equality And Diversity In Education 2 National And International Contexts:

Equality and Diversity in Education: National and international contexts Patricia Potts, Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, 1995 Equality and Diversity in Education 2 Felicity Armstrong, 2017-06-28 Like the first reader this collection examines the grounds which are accepted for inclusion or exclusion of students and looks at how appropriate support can be guaranteed for people who experience difficulties in learning who are disabled or who experience social or other kinds of disability This volume explores national and international contexts for educational practice and research and discusses practical ethical and political issues which are relevant to undertaking that research Part one covers issues facing local government and the consumers of educational services in the UK Part two compares policy and practice in eleven different countries and part 3 discusses research which explores the issues of equality and diversity in education This volume and her sister Equality and Diversity in Education 1 Learning Teaching and Managing in Schools are readers for the Open University course Developing Inclusive Curricula Equality and Diversity in Education E829 The two books in the series will appeal to teachers non teaching assistants and other school based staff parents disabled people and those who have experienced difficulties in learning social and health workers and those working for voluntary organisations Equality and Diversity in Education 2 Patricia Potts, Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, 1994 Designed to accompany the Open University course Developing Intensive Curricula Equality and Diversity in Education Volume 2 will appeal to research students and special needs professionals interested in understanding education in the 1990s Equality and Diversity in Education 1 Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, Patricia Potts, 2013-10-08 Designed to accompany the Open University course Developing Intensive Curricula Equality and Diversity in Education Vol 1 will appeal to research students undertaking research in the area of education focusing on special needs Teacher Career Motivation and Professional Development in Special and Inclusive Education in China Yan Feng, 2010-01-01 Using autobiographical accounts acquired from her extensive career in education the author has explored the multi faceted influences on teacher career motivation and professional development in special and inclusive education in China The social realities faced by teachers in their professional lives in a city in China have been highlighted through comparison and contrast with those of their international peers This is achieved through a comprehensive review of recent literature and an empirical study to encourage teacher voices with this regard The study reveals opportunities and challenges in China in the process of moving towards inclusive education In particular it identifies the impact of teacher recruitment policies teacher education programmes education decentralisation rural urban disparities as well as socio cultural values on teacher career motivation and their professional development It also addresses various implications regarding ethical dilemmas overlooked in previous educational research Meanwhile the author proposes a discussion on Self Determination Theory in terms of motivational change Inclusive Education in Europe Christine O'Hanlon, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1995 this book offers a crucial view of the implementation of legislation for the integration of pupils with special educational needs in EU countries at the time The match or mismatch between the rhetoric and reality between the policy and the practice are reviewed by presenters from a recent appraisal of progress in individual national contexts Authors are critical of the situation in their own countries and call upon recent and relevant research sources to support their views The relationships between particular themes in the education of pupils with special needs are observed and compared in a broad European context

Theorising Special Education Catherine Clark, Alan Dyson, Alan Millward, 2005-06-23 This field of special education has been through marked changes in recent years with the emergence of notions such as inclusive schooling and entitlement curricula This book brings together contributions from the UK and beyond

Research in Social Care and Social Welfare Beth Humphries, 2000-12-03 This important book explores the links between research evidence based practice and policy in social care Basing their chapters in case study material the contributors examine the issues arising from qualitative and quantitative methodologies critique orthodox views of ethics and offer examples of innovative social research methods

Human Rights and Social Care Sam Smith, 2018-07-01 In exploring the development of a human rights based approach to social care Smith challenges the perception of human rights law and practice being the preserve of lawyers and demystifies human rights in a social care context

Teaching in the Primary School Neil Kitson, 2002-09-11 It is now widely recognized that learners are more successful when they are active participants in the learning relationship This book offers a general introduction to primary education and child development using the learning relationship between teachers and children as its focus Divided into two parts the first looks at the child's contribution to the learning relationship and the second examines that of the teacher

Spaced Out: Policy, Difference and the Challenge of Inclusive Education F. Armstrong, 2006-01-02 This is an extremely important book containing a wealth of ideas and insights and raising important questions for discussion and further exploration In a lucid and cogently argued analysis the author both challenges dominant ideas and interpretations and provides some alternative innovative perspectives These include the making and meaning of policy the varied and complex ways in which inclusion and exclusion can be understood the nature and function of categorisation labelling and discursive practices within official discourse and procedures and the position and relationship between space place and identities in relation to the experience of marginalized people including disabled children and young people Drawing on concepts and insights from social and cultural geography Armstrong is able to seriously examine and discuss daily activities within institutional and social settings in England and France from several different angles In sensitive thoughtful and imaginative ways the micro politics of social settings and encounters are explored through a process of deconstruction and reconstruction Subtle overt and contradictory features of interactions are carefully identified and critically discussed This covers how meanings decisions and outcomes of such encounters are developed challenged and changed Both in relation to discussions of the history of special education and her critical self reflections on the research process the author challenges homogeneous conceptions and sanitized accounts of what she argues is an essentially messy process It is the unevenness discontinuities and contradictions of social conditions and relations that are depicted in insightful and disturbing ways Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A. Banks,2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live work and lead With continually evolving information on diversity policies practices and programs it is important to have one place where students scholars teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U S education enriched with theories research and practices in other nations are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K 12 and postsecondary levels With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race class gender religion language exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world The Educational Challenge of Cultural Diversity in the International Context Christos Govaris, Stavroula Kaldi (ed.),2010 The book contributes to the promotion of intercultural scientific discourse concerning the issue of managing the worldwide common challenge of cultural diversity in different education systems Considering the diversity in the school student population as an educational challenge the aim of this volume is to present theoretical and research works associated to the scientific discourse about intercultural education and its importance to education on a national level and to the educational policies regarding school integration of pupils with immigrant background in different education systems The examples about the effective management of diversity of student population on a national level and the open scientific questions that are presented can contribute to broaden our perspective regarding the width both of dimensions of this educational challenge and of the possibilities to manage the diversity of student population effectively Handbook of Home Language Maintenance and Development Andrea C. Schalley,Susana A. Eisenclas,2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development To date however research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism Within bilingualism research there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand and educational practices and outcomes on the other In comparison social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under researched This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field Affirmative Action Matters Laura

Dudley Jenkins, Michele S. Moses, 2014-04-04 Affirmative Action Matters focuses specifically on affirmative action policies in higher education admissions the sphere that has been the most controversial in many of the nations that have such policies It brings together distinguished scholars from diverse nations to examine and discuss the historical political and philosophical contexts of affirmative action and clarify policy developments to further the meaningful equality of educational opportunity This unique volume includes both well established and emerging policies from the Americas Europe Africa and Asia policies which developed under a variety of political systems and target a range of underrepresented groups based on race ethnicity gender class social background or region Accessible and thought provoking case studies of affirmative action demonstrate that such policies are expanding to different countries and target populations While some countries such as India have affirmative action policies that predate those in the United States affirmative action is a recent development in countries such as Brazil and France Legal or political pressures to move away from explicitly race based policies in several countries have complicated affirmative action and make this assessment of international alternatives particularly timely New or newly modified policies target a variety of disadvantaged groups based on geography class or caste in addition to race or sex International scholars in six countries spanning five continents offer insights into their own countries experiences to examine the implications of policy shifts from race toward other categories of disadvantage to consider best practices in student admission policies and to assess the future of affirmative action Teaching and Learning Chinese in Global Contexts
