Epistle To The Romans A Study Manual:

The Epistle to the Romans Gleason Leonard Archer, 1974 The Epistle to the Romans Gleason Leonard Archer, 1959

The Epistle to the Romans Gleason Leonard Archer, 1969 The Epistle to the Romans Douglas J. Moo, 1996-09-30 Paul's letter to the Romans has been called the quintessence and perfection of saving doctrine. Perhaps the most challenging and thoroughly doctrinal book of the entire New Testament, Romans deals with many issues that are basic to Christian theology and practice. In The Epistle to the Romans, respected New Testament scholar Douglas Moo provides a superb study of Paul's letter to the Roman Christians and restates the enduring message of Romans for Christians today. Originally written for the Wycliffe Exegetical Commentary series, this work has been substantially expanded and adapted for the NICNT series; it now treats the entire book of Romans rather than the first half. Based on the English text but bringing into the discussion the underlying Greek at every point, this commentary focuses both on theological meaning and on contemporary significance. Moo makes a contribution to the continuing debate regarding Paul's teaching on such issues as Jewish law and the relationship between the Jews and Gentiles in the people of God. He also critically interacts with the new perspective on Paul, highlights Romans's emphasis on practical divinity, and traces the theme of gospel throughout the epistle. Romans: A Model for

Proclamation and Praise Ronald Man, 2007-09-01 An important missing element in today's raging worship debates is a proper acknowledgment of the continuing ministry of the living Christ in mediating and leading our worship This is a crucial truth that transcends issues of style and form and thus provides a foundation for a unified and unifying understanding of worship in spite of the wide diversity of worship expressions that has always characterized the body of Christ The wonderful fact is that we are not left to worship God on our own strength Rather the grace of God which is so abundantly provided to us for our salvation and sanctification can be seen to be just as operational and effectual when it comes to our worship Our worship is acceptable and pleasing to God not because of any inherent excellence of its own but because we come in Christ and his righteousness into the Father's presence In Hebrews 2:12 we find an amazingly succinct yet powerful description of the two way mediating ministry of Christ he continues to be the agent of God's revelation to us and also serves as the leader and facilitator of our response back to God in worship Christ does not just open or show us the way into the Father's presence in worship he actively leads us takes us with him so that we might enjoy the same relationship of love and fellowship that he himself enjoys with the Father This transforming understanding opens up a wide range of complementary truths concerning the Trinitarian and Christological implications of worship with profound implications for
