Epitaph For George Dillon

John Osborne

Epitaph For George Dillon:

Epitaph for George Dillon John Osborne, Anthony Creighton, 1958 This is an early John Osborne play one of two plays that he wrote in collaboration with Anthony Creighton In this play George Dillon is a dedicated but jobless actor an ambitious and serious playwright But as the months go by and no parts are offered his manuscripts returned his life becomes a nightmare of anonymity petty debt and enforced idleness When he goes to live with the Elliot family the nightmare changes but does not lift Eventually George Dillon forges his success Yet his epitaph is a judgment on all of us He never allowed himself one day of peace He made no one happy He loved no one successfully And in the end it doesn't really matter
