Era Of The Individual A Contribution To A History Of Subjectivity:

The Era of the Individual Alain Renault, 2000 In The Era of the Individual the author explores the most salient feature of post structuralism the elimination of the human subject At the root of this thinking lies the belief that humans cannot know or control their basic natures a premise that led to Heidegger s distrust of an individualistic capitalist modern society and that allied him briefly with Hitler s National Socialist Party While acknowledging some of Heidegger s misgivings toward modernity as legitimate Renault argues that it is nevertheless wrong to equate modernity with the triumph of individualism Here he distinguishes between individualism and subjectivity and by offering a history of the two powerfully redirects the course of current thinking away from potentially dangerous reductionist views of humanity

Early Modern Humanism and Postmodern Antihumanism in Dialogue Jan Miernowski, 2016-10-14 This book employs perspectives from continental philosophy intellectual history and literary and cultural studies to breach the divide between early modernist and modernist thinkers It turns to early modern humanism in order to challenge late 20th century thought and present day posthumanism This book addresses contemporary concerns such as the moral responsibility of the artist the place of religious beliefs in our secular societies legal rights extended to nonhuman species the sense of normality applied to the human body the politics of migration individual political freedom and international terrorism It demonstrates how early modern humanism can bring new perspectives to postmodern antihumanism and even invite us to envision a humanism of the future

I Do I Undo I Redo Finn Fordham, 2010-01-14 The manuscripts of modern writers are a labyrinth but they have become an exciting new destination for literary scholarship In this lively lucid and original study Finn Fordham looks at the draft manuscripts of six great modernist writers Hopkins Yeats Conrad Forster Joyce and Woolf to compare their variety of writing processes

The Era of the Individual Alain Renault, 1997 Lingua Franca , 1996 French Politics and Society , 1997 Foucault and the Art of Ethics Timothy O'Leary, 2006-09-15 This comprehensive assessment of Michel Foucault s later work responds to the contemporary crisis in ethics focusing on the way Foucault attempts to bring together the two seemingly incompatible spheres of ethics and aesthetics through his reassessment of the Greek tradition

Research Handbook on the Sociology of Law Jiří Přibáň, 2020-12-25 This unique Research Handbook maps the historical theoretical and methodological concepts in sociology of law exploring the rich and complex nature of this area of research It argues that sociology of law flourishes due to its strong capacity for interdisciplinary engagement and links to other scientific concepts methodologies and research fields

The 50 Most Significant Individuals in Recorded History Stan Russo, 2005-04 This book contains a subjective ranking of the 50 most significant men and women throughout recorded history The author Stan Russo conducted more than four years of meticulous research on 500 important figures throughout the ages before settling on this list Each person s reasons for inclusion are described in a countdown format leading up to the most significant individual The book not only provided an educational and entertaining look at numerous cultures and time periods in the process but also builds suspense with each page as readers guess which person comes next and why After the top ranked name is revealed the author then provides his rationale for why other famous men and women did not make the cut This book is an excellent resource for educators and all fans of history by serving as a starting point for further debate and discussion Reintroduce the fun back into historical studies Learn about individuals who might otherwise have gone unrecognized See if your own favorite figures from history made the list Whether you agree or disagree with the choices and the order they are listed in you ll think about history in new ways Values of Our Times Deshun Li,2013-06-01 Philosophers have gradually accepted axiology as one branch of philosophy As a basic category belonging to axiology and philosophy value is the general abstraction of concrete value formation in various fields including utility ethics and appreciation of the beauty The problem of value is essentially a problem of historical activities of practice in human society The axiology based on the scientific practice view insists on the principle of unification between theory and practice truth and value In research of axiology the relation between subjectivity and objectivity of values is a problem that must be solved in the first place The modern conversation of value philosophy is the academic and practical demands of the value philosophy research in China Value evaluation is an important part of the axiology In order to deepen the research of value philosophy and to promote the development of current value philosophy we must have scientific mode of thinking suitable for the nature of value It is the base of value relation the origin of value needs the process of value creation and actualization and the fundamental way to proving ones value as a human being Prokofiev's Soviet Operas Nathan Seinen,2019-09-05 Offers a critical and contextual study of the last four operas of Prokofiev the leading opera composer in Stalin s Soviet Union Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith,Julia Watson,1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women s autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women s autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers A History of Greek Philosophy from the Earliest Period to the time of Socrates Eduard Zeller,Sarah Frances Alleyne,2024-02-25 Reprint of the original first published in 1881 A History of Greek Philosophy from the Earliest Period to the Time of Socrates Eduard Zeller,1881 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner,1863 The Power of Narrative Pascal Nouvel,2025-10-06 Telling a story changes the way we think about an event and makes us understand it differently The very power of storytelling lies in this process of making understanding We give meaning to what is happening on the basis of what we have understood about what was in the past or what could be in the future The same is true when we tell our own story we give different meanings to the events of our own lives in the various accounts we give of them This process was spotted early on by the Stoic philosophers who used it in certain techniques of the self Michel Foucault that they called hupomnemata The analysis of this process is at the heart of this book which lies between philosophy literature and historical reflection How does meditating on one s history help to change one's own attitudes And what does the fact that it is possible to change oneself by looking back at oneself tell us about what man is in general Is this a universal fact or is it limited to one or a few cultures

The Routledge History of the Senses Andrew Kettler, Will Tullett, 2025-06-26 The Routledge History of the Senses presents readers with an overview of the field As well as pointing to directions for the future of the discipline it illustrates the extent to which the subject offers a considerable space for the exploration of diverse historical topics through the lens of sensory experience The handbook brings together essays and case studies from some of the leading academics on the history of the senses Together they not only chart topics and arguments in existing scholarship but introduce fresh methodologies for future analyses Specifically the chapters collectively show that the senses of the historical body often portray the intensity of the invasion of capital upon the functions of the mind throughout global history As a global history this work arrives at a time when many sensory historians are looking for a touchstone for moving beyond the often heavily Western frameworks that dominate the existing literature on the historical senses Not only will this book appeal to students and scholars of the history of senses visual studies art history food studies and many of the social sciences but individual chapters also offer useful reading material for a wide range of history modules and contemporary topics

The Presence of the Past in Children's Literature Ann Lucas, 2003-09-30 Time is one of the most prominent themes in the relatively young genre of children's literature for the young like adults want to know about the past This book explores how children's writers have treated the theme and concept of time The volume starts with the application of literary theory and additionally analyzes examples of the juvenile historical novel In doing so it also examines changing fashions in criticism and publishing and the pressure they exert on writers It then considers literary adaptations of myths and archetypes constructions of history in children's literature colonial and postcolonial children's fiction and the treatment of the past in the postmodern era The book looks at literature from around the world and the expert contributors are from diverse countries and backgrounds While the book looks primarily at literature of the 19th and 20th centuries it considers a broad range of historical material treated in works from that period Included are discussions of such topics as Joan of Arc in children's literature the legacy of Robinson Crusoe colonial and postcolonial children's literature the Holocaust and the supernatural International in scope the volume examines history and collective memory in Portuguese children's fiction Australian history in picture books Norwegian children's literature and literary treatments of the great Irish famine

A History of Modern Psychology in Context Wade Pickren, Alexandra Rutherford, 2010-02-19 In A History of Modern Psychology in Context the authors resist the traditional storylines of great achievements by eminent people or schools of thought that rise and fall in the wake of scientific progress Instead psychology is portrayed as a network of scientific and professional practices embedded in specific contexts The narrative is informed by three key concepts indigenization reflexivity and social constructionism and by the fascinating interplay between disciplinary Psychology and everyday psychology
