International Law and Boundary Disputes in Africa Gbenga Oduntan,2015-06-26 Africa has experienced a number of territorial disputes over land and maritime boundaries due in part to its colonial and post colonial history This book explores the legal political and historical nature of disputes over territory in the African continent and critiques the content and application of contemporary International law to the resolution of African territorial and border disputes Drawing on central concepts of public international law such as sovereignty and jurisdiction and socio political concepts such as colonialism ethnicity nationality and self determination this book interrogates the intimate connection that peoples and nations have to territory and the severe disputes these may lead to Gbenga Oduntan identifies the major principles of law at play in relation to territorial and boundary disputes and argues that the predominant use of foreign based adjudicatory mechanisms in attempting to deal with African boundary disputes alienates those institutions and mechanisms from African people and can contribute to the recurrence of conflicts and disputes in and among African territories He suggests that the understanding and application of multidisciplinary dispute resolution mechanisms and strategies can allow for a more holistic and effective treatment of boundary disputes As an in depth study into the legal socio political and anthropological mechanisms involved in the understanding of territorial boundaries and a unique synthesis of an African jurisprudence of international boundaries law this book will be of great use and interest to students researchers and practitioners in African and Public International Law International Relations and decision makers in need of better understanding the settlement of disputes over territorial boundaries in both Africa and the wider world Recent Geographical Literature, Maps and Photographs Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1919 The Journal of the Manchester Geographical Society ,1895 Map Link Catalog ,2007 Bulletin of the American Geographical Society American Geographical Society of New York,1914

Eritrea's Gold Rush Charlotte Touati, 2025-10-02 Leading Horn of Africa expert Charlotte Touati exposes the role played by Canadian gold mining company Nevsun and other global actors in propping up the regime of Isayas Aferwerki one of Africa's most dangerous dictators. In so doing, Touati shows how global capital networks help perpetuate economic and political instability in the Horn of Africa, which in turn is fostering violence and volatility throughout other parts of the world. Using a narrative framework and a core cast of characters to help guide non-specialist readers through her findings, Touati explains the enormous significance of how Nevsun partnered with Aferwerki to open the Bisha gold mine and save his regime from bankruptcy. As Touati relates, when Eritrean refugees later claimed they were conscripted to work in the mines without pay and abused as part of their National Service, Nevsun hired lobbyists to defend Eritrea's actions and cast the very notion of human rights as a Western Trojan horse. Australian, Chinese, and Russian actors gradually became involved, and philological analysis shows that the propaganda and disinformation campaigns of the infamous Russian Wagner Group ultimately stem from the rhetoric of Aferwerki and his lobbyists. Ultimately, this violently anti-Western rhetoric was injected into a pan-Africanist discourse to become an ideological and rhetorical toolbox. It was used to prevent any intervention on behalf of Eritreans trapped in their own country or Tigrayans genocided in neighboring Ethiopia in the name of sovereignty and also to legitimize new conflicts throughout the Sahel and the rest of Africa's notorious Coup Belt. It takes on even wider global dimensions when we consider the ongoing crisis around the Red Sea ports which Eritrea controls and the question of the influence of the Gulf States in the Horn of Africa.
