Ernest Hemingway Seven Decades Of Criticism:

Ernest Hemingway, 1987     The Critics and Hemingway, 1924-2014 Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2015 Traces Hemingway's critical fortunes over the ninety years of his prominence telling us something about what we value in literature and why scholarly reputations rise and fall Hemingway burst on the literary scene in the 1920s with spare penetrating short stories and brilliant novels Soon he was held as a standard for modern writers Meanwhile he used his celebrity to create a persona like the stoic macho heroes of his fiction After a decline during the 1930s and 1940s he came roaring back with The Old Man and the Sea in 1952 Two years later he received the Nobel Prize While his popularity waxed and waned during his lifetime Hemingway's reputation among scholars remained strong as long as traditional scholarship dominated New approaches beginning in the 1960s brought a sea change however finding grave fault with his work and making him a figure ripe for vilification Yet during this time scholarship on him continued to appear His works still sell well and several are staples on high school and college syllabi A new scholarly edition of his letters is drawing prominent attention and there is a resurgence in scholarly attention to and approbation for his work Tracing Hemingway's critical fortunes tells us something about what we value in literature and why reputations rise and fall as scholars find new ways to examine and interpret creative work Laurence W. Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson Updike and Matthew Arnold for Camden House's Literary Criticism in Perspective series     The Critical Reception of Hemingway's *The Sun Also Rises Peter L. Hays, 2011 This History of the criticism of The Sun Also Rises shows not only how Hemingway's first major novel was received over the decades but also how different critical modes have dominated different decades and what besides tenure critics of different eras looked for in it As such it shows what has interested critics how they have reinterpreted the novel and how they have seen the characters playing different roles Thus the novel becomes a mirror reflecting not only Paris and Spain in 1925 but us     A Historical Guide to Ernest Hemingway Linda Wagner-Martin, 2000-01-27 The 1999 Hemingway centennial marks the perfect time for the reevaluation of his position as America's premier modernist writer These essays all written specially for this collection plumb unexplored historical details of Hemingway's life to illuminate new and often unexpected dimensions of the force of his literary accomplishment Discussing biographical details of his personal and professional life along with the subtleties of his character the text includes a number of fascinating photos and images     A Cognitive Approach to Ernest Hemingway's Short Fiction Gabriela Tucan, 2021-04-09 How do readers make sense of Hemingway's short stories How is it possible that the camera-like quality of his narrative can appeal to our senses and arouse our emotions How does it capture us With reserved narrators and protagonists engaged in laconic dialogs his texts do not seem to say much This book consciously revisits our responses to the Hemingway story a belated response to his invitation to discover what lies beneath the surface of his iceberg What this pioneering critical endeavor seeks to understand is the thinking required in reading Hemingway's short fiction It proposes a cognitively informed model of reading which questions the resources of the reader's imaginative powers The cognitive demonstrations here are designed to have potentially larger implications for the short story's general mode of knowing Drawing from both cognitively oriented poetics and narratology in equal measure this book explains what structures our interaction with literary texts     John Steinbeck and His Contemporaries Stephen K. George, Barbara A.

Heavilin, 2007-10-02 In March of 2006 scholars from around the world gathered in Sun Valley Idaho for a conference devoted to not only John Steinbeck but also to the authors whose work influenced or illuminates his writings This volume represents the many unique papers delivered at that conference by scholars from around the world This collection includes studies on authors who influenced Steinbeck's work discussions of writers whose work is in dialogue with Steinbeck and examinations of Steinbeck's contemporaries whose individual works invite comparisons with those of the Nobel prize winning author Revealing Steinbeck's penchant for culling all old books the first section focuses on Steinbeck's European forebears particularly Sir Thomas Malory's retelling of the legend of King Arthur Le Morte d'Arthur and Henry Fielding's novel Tom Jones This section also includes articles on his American forebears Walt Whitman and Sarah Orne Jewett The second part Steinbeck Hemingway Faulkner and Cather includes a personal reminiscence by Ernest Hemingway's daughter in law Valerie as well as comparisons of Steinbeck with other great American authors of the 20th century The third section includes an essay by National Book Award winner Charles Johnson Middle Passage as well as articles that compare Steinbeck's work with Zora Neale Hurston Alice Walker and Toni Morrison Further articles are concerned with Steinbeck's moral philosophy and strong sense of social justice eliciting comparisons with Sinclair Lewis Tom Kristensen and Charles Johnson The fourth section Steinbeck the Arts and the World includes articles on the film adaptation of The Moon Is Down on Steinbeck and Mexican Modernism on the American experience as portrayed in The Grapes of Wrath and Raymond Chandler's The Big Sleep and on Steinbeck and ecocriticism The book fittingly concludes with John Ditsky's keynote address In Search of a Language Steinbeck and Others which was delivered     Readings of Trauma, Madness, and the Body S.

Anderson, 2012-09-14 In Readings of Trauma Madness and the Body Anderson explores how Modernist fiction narratives by Hemingway the Fitzgeralds and H D represent trauma specifically addressing the conflict between speaking about and repressing traumatic memories while also considering how authors' understandings of gender influence their depictions

The Cambridge History of American Modernism Mark Whalan, 2023-07-20 The Cambridge History of American Modernism examines one of the most innovative periods of American literary history It offers a comprehensive account of the forms genres and media that characterized US modernism coverage ranges from the traditional such as short stories novels and poetry to the new media that shaped the period's literary culture such as jazz cinema the skyscraper and radio This volume charts how recent methodologies such as ecocriticism geomodernism and print culture studies have refashioned understandings of the field and attends to the contestations and inequities of race sovereignty gender sexuality and ethnicity that shaped the period and its cultural production It also explores the geographies and communities wherein US modernism flourished from its distinctive regions to its metropolitan cities from its hemispheric connections to the salons and political groupings that hosted new cultural collaborations

Ernest Hemingway in Context Debra A. Modellmog, Suzanne del Gizzo, 2013 This book Provides the fullest introduction to Hemingway and his world found in a single volume Offers contextual essays written on a range of topics by experts in Hemingway studies Provides a highly useful reference work for scholarship as well as teaching excellent for classes on Hemingway modernism and American literature Publisher's website

Ernest Hemingway in Interview and Translation Mirosława Buchholtz, Dorota Gutfeld, 2022-07-21 The book offers an innovative approach to the study of Ernest Hemingway's fiction and biography It juxtaposes two perspectives that have been underrepresented in Hemingway studies so far translation and interview The book is divided into three sections which mirror the key words in the title interview and translation Section One explores the last interviews with Hemingway in their historical context of the Cold War Section Two focuses on the achievement of Bronisław Zieliński Hemingway's Polish translator and friend who is hardly known outside Poland The section gives a detailed account of their correspondence in the years 1958-1961 Section Three is an account of experiments in translating Hemingway's famous story Cat in the Rain 1925 by groups of Polish university students Its aim is to illustrate the extent to which literary translation may influence the construction of the text's meaning

A Companion to Hemingway's Death in the Afternoon Miriam B. Mandel, 2009 New carefully focused essays providing a thorough examination of Hemingway's groundbreaking non-fictional work Published in 1932 Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers By that time Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties A mature and self-confident artist he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction from American characters to Spanish bullfighters from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it Hemingway's nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed a state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction It does so in original essays that offer a thorough balanced examination of a complex boundary breaking and hitherto neglected text The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition reception and sources of Death in the Afternoon cultural translation cultural criticism semiotics and paratextual matters and the issues of art authorship audience and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon The contributors to the volume four men and seven women lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read and their nationalities British Spanish American and Israeli indicate that Death in the Afternoon even as it focuses on a particular national art discusses matters of universal concern Contributors Miriam B Mandel Robert W Trogdon Lisa Tyler Linda Wagner Martin Peter Messent Beatriz Penas Ibáñez Anthony Brand Nancy Bredendick Hilary Justice Amy Vondrak and Kenneth

 An investigation of how popular modernist writers handled their fame American Fiction Between the Wars Harold Bloom,2009 America in the 1920s and 30s saw the emergence of some of the best known writers of the modern generation John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner Environmental Evasion Lloyd Willis,2012-01-02 How do we reconcile the abstract reverence for the natural world central to American literary history beginning with Ralph Waldo Emerson s Nature with over a century and a half of widespread environmental destruction Environmental Evasion examines the environmental implications of literary and cultural productions by writers from James Femimore Cooper and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow to Willa Cather John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and Zora Neale Hurston Lloyd Willis provocatively argues that the environmentalist outlooks by Cooper and Longfellow were eclipsed by Ralph Waldo Emerson s abstract imperialist vision of nature He demonstrates how many 20th century American writers have taken the Emersonian approach participating in a silent but extremely powerful form of evasive environmental politics in the ways in which they write about the natural world Attentive to the inherent political dimensions of all texts Environmental Evasion insists on the relevance of environmental history and politics to New Americanist approaches to the literary canon Ernest Hemingway Linda Wagner-Martin,2022-02-08 Ernest Hemingway A Literary Life includes new research on the best known of the posthumous publications A Moveable Feast 1964 and the 2009 A Moveable Feast The Restored Edition Islands in the Stream 1970 and The Garden of Eden 1986 Linda Wagner Martin provides background and intertextual readings particularly of the way Hemingway s unpublished stories Phillip Haines was a writer and his fiction from Men Without Women and Winner Take Nothing interface with the memoir The revised edition also highlights and provides background on Hemingway s treatment of F Scott Fitzgerald and Gertrude Stein his life in Paris in the 1920s and his connection to the poetry scene there putting this in conversation with Mary Hemingway s edits of A Moveable Feast The new chapters also illuminate the reception of Islands in the Stream and a new way of understanding the role of gender and androgyny in The Garden of Eden On a whole the book draws from extensive archival research particularly correspondence of all four of Hemingway s wives Student Companion to Ernest Hemingway Lisa Tyler,2001-09-30 The fully lived yet tragically ended life of Ernest Hemingway has attracted nearly as much attention as his extensive canon of writings This critical study introduces students to both the man and his fiction exploring how Hemingway confronted in his own life the same moral issues that would later create thematic conflicts for the characters in his novels In addition to the biographical chapter which focuses on the pivotal events in Hemingway s personal life a literary heritage chapter overviews his professional developments relating his distinctive style to his early years as a journalist With clear concise analysis students are guided through all of Hemingway s major works including The Sun Also Rises 1926 A Farewell to Arms 1929 For Whom the Bell Tolls 1940 and The Old Man and the Sea 1952 Full chapters are also devoted to examining his collections of short fiction the African Stories and the posthumous works Each chapter carefully examines the major literary components of Hemingway s fiction with plot synopsis analysis of character development themes settings historical context and stylistic features Alternate critical readings are also given for each of the full length works An extensive bibliography citing all of Hemingway s writings as well as biographical sources general criticism and contemporary reviews will help students understand the scope of Hemingway s contributions to American Literature

Race and Identity in Hemingway's Fiction A. Strong,2008-04-14 Race and Identity in Hemingway s Fiction explores how Hemingway negotiates race as a defining element of American identity His interest in race and racial identity emerged in his writing and his personal life through attention to skin color performance of racial identity and experimentation and immersion in tribal life and rituals This study imagines what Hemingway s fiction would look like if his non white characters were brought out of the background and asks how Hemingway s conception of American identity transforms when it is constructed on the basis of race
