Duras, Writing, and the Ethical Martin Crowley,2000 Careful textual analysis shows the particular fragile nature of this engagement as well as the intricate textures of Duras's work this leads to a striking new model of the relation between the literary text and the ethical life of its readers which will be of importance not only to specialists in French Studies but to all those interested in ethical criticism and modern literary studies

BOOK JACKET

Revisioning Duras James S. Williams,2000-12-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognised Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras's work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras's work in the widest sense of the term

Women and the City in French Literature and Culture Siobhán McIlvanney,Gillian Ni Cheallaigh,2019-05-15

Interdisciplinarity this book covers a range of media and genres from cinema to journalism to novels and a range of disciplines from feminism film studies Francophone studies history etc which allows readers to access a particularly extensive range of disciplines within one volume and to make informed comparisons Transhistoricism the chronological range of essays included in this journal from the medieval period through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the present demonstrates that women have always managed to access their own territory within the masculinised urban environment and this encourages readers to rethink previous gendered assumptions about women and the city Feminism the essays here form part of the wider movement in academic research to redress the gendered imbalance of perspectives on a range of subjects here allowing us to look anew at French and Francophone culture and history as part of this feminist rewriting

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule,Julie Beaulieu,2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras s innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras s cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras s films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five

French Cultural Studies for the Twenty-First Century Masha Belenky, Kathryn Kleppinger, Anne O'Neil-Henry, 2017-03-30 French Cultural Studies for the Twenty First Century brings together current scholarship on a diverse range of topics from French postcards and Third Republic menus to Haitian literary magazines and representation of race in vaudeville theater in order to provide methodological insight into the current practice of French cultural studies The essays in the volume show how scholars of French studies can effectively analyze what we term non traditional sources in their historical and geographical contexts In doing so the volume offers a compelling vision of the field today and maps out potential paradigms for future research This book builds upon previous scholarship that defined the stakes of using an interdisciplinary approach to analyze cultural objects from France and Francophone regions and aims to evaluate the current state of this complex and constantly evolving field and its current methodological practices

The Crimes of Marguerite Duras Anne Brancky, 2020-07-09 One of the most celebrated authors of twentieth century France Marguerite Duras loved crime Indeed criminal faits divers from the newspaper represented a key element in her literary project Sensational news stories made their way into her novels plays and screenplays inspired numerous journalistic pieces and media interventions and even informed the way that she discussed her life and work in the press The Crimes of Marguerite Duras offers an innovative framework for analyzing Duras s literary works and journalism as they relate to the mass media and broader cultural debates Anne Brancky reveals how Duras s predilection for provocatively blurring the line between truth and fiction on various media platforms helped make her a best selling author and a public intellectual ahead of her time Exploring the movement between serious literature and public scandal this readable book affirms literature s abiding role in political debate and the public sphere

The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology
