Children's librarians, collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K-8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children's titles. This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do. Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement. The guide identifies seven reader-driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory: awakening new perspectives, providing models for identity, offering reassurance, comfort, strength, and confirmation of self-worth, connecting with others, giving courage to make a change, facilitating acceptance, and building a disinterested understanding of the world. By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes, librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books, thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers. The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes, subjects, reading interest levels, adaptations, and alternative formats, translations, and read-alikes. This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Harry Potter J. K. Rowling, J. K. At this time Aunt Marge comes to stay with the Dursleys and she insults Harry's parents numerous times. Harry accidentally causes her to inflate. Harry leaves the Dursley's house and is picked up by the Knight Bus but only after an alarming sighting of a large black dog. The Knight Bus drops Harry off at Diagon Alley where he is greeted by Cornelius Fudge, the Minister of Magic. He rents a room and awaits the start of school. In Diagon Alley Harry finishes his schoolwork, admires a Firebolt broomstick in the window of a shop, and after some time finds his friends Ron and Hermione. At a pet shop Hermione buys a cat named Crookshanks who chases Scabbers, Ron's aging pet rat. Ron is most displeased. The night before they all head off to Hogwarts.
