Shadows

and Cypress Alan Brown, 2009-09-28 From backwaters as dark as a cypress swamp to nooks as mysterious as a musty college library southerners have conjured spirits and told ghost stories Shadows and Cypress Southern Ghost Stories is a Dixie's dance that summons ghost tales from Alabama Arkansas Florida Georgia Kentucky Louisiana Mississippi North Carolina South Carolina Tennessee Texas and Virginia Collecting more than a dozen stories from each state this book channels the South's entire panorama of creepy locales into one volume The limestone caves of Kentucky the swamps of Louisiana and Florida the pine hills and hollows of Appalachia and the plains of Texas these are perfect haunts for a host of narratives about visitors from the spirit world The many cultures that converged in the American South enriched the region's ghost stories Shadows and Cypress taps African American French Hispanic and Scotch Irish storytelling traditions to capture the distinctive signatures that each has left on ghostlore Throughout the region the southern ghost story is hardly a curiosity from the crypt It is still alive and well Folklorist Alan Brown draws stories from crannies as contemporary as the college dormitory or cars parked on a lover's lane To give the reader the unique experience of hearing a classic ghost story told Brown presents these tales exactly as they were recorded in his field research or as archived in the trove of the WPA oral collections A wide variety of specters found only in this region arise in Shadows and Cypress The fillet and loogaroo from Louisiana plat eye from South Carolina and haints from across Dixie are among the creatures bumping in the night Beginning with the Revolutionary War and continuing to the present day this generous gathering of tales will chill and delight readers and long haunt shelves as a comprehensive sourcebook of the region's supernatural allure

Real-Life X-Files Joe Nickell, 2001-10-24 Takes a scientific approach to paranormal mysteries taking readers on a series of case studies from spontaneous human combustion and hauntings to aliens and stigmata employing forensic and investigative techniques to their analysis

Face To Face With The Unknown Sherry Hansen Steiger, 2001-04-15 The line that divides fiction from fact is not always as clear as it may seem Two plus two equals four right But what if just once two plus two equaled five Hard to believe Absolutely But for the young people whose stories are related here that is exactly what happened Each of them experiences something that simply could not be explained For instance two boys forced to spend the night in their car during a bad storm learn the next morning that an eyewitness swears he saw four burly men inside their care scare off a gang But who were the men The boys were alone that night Another time a teen on the way home from a date comes upon strange alien forms in the road ahead He chases after them only to discover humanoid imprints in the grass Not even the local sheriff can explain it Mysterious sightings alien encounters guardian angles ghostly hauntings bizarre visitations In dozens of stories teens relate real life experiences with the unknown

If You Should Go at Midnight Jeffrey S. Debies-Carl, 2023-04-21 Tonight across America countless people will embark on an adventure They will prowl among overgrown headstones in forgotten graveyards stalk through darkened woods and wildlands and creep down the crumbling corridors of abandoned buildings They have set forth in search of a profound paranormal experience and may seem to achieve just that They are part of the growing cultural phenomenon called legend tripping In If You Should Go at Midnight Legends and Legend Tripping in America author Jeffrey S Debies Carl guides readers through an exploration of legend tripping drawing on years of scholarship documentary accounts and his own extensive fieldwork Poring over old reports and legends sleeping in haunted inns and trekking through wilderness full of cannibal mutants and strange beasts Debies Carl provides an in depth analysis of this practice that has long fascinated scholars yet remains a mystery to many observers Debies Carl argues that legend trips are important social practices Unlike traditional rites of passage they reflect the modern world revealing both its problems and its virtues In society as well as in legend tripping there is ambiguity conflict crisis of meaning and the substitution of debate for social consensus Conversely both emphasize individual agency and values even in spiritual matters While people still need meaningful and transformative experiences authoritative traditional institutions are less capable of providing them Instead legend trippers voluntarily search for individually meaningful experiences and actively participate in shaping and interpreting those experiences for themselves
