King, Quinetta M. Roberson, Mikki R. Hebl, 2020-09-01 Few time periods in the past five decades match the intensity of intergroup conflict that people around the world are currently experiencing Polarized attitudes around various sociopolitical issues such as gender equality and immigration have dominated the media and our lives Furthermore these powerful social dynamics have also impacted the places where we work and intensified existing strains on workers and workplaces To address these issues and improve organizational climates more theories research and collaborations to understand these phenomena are needed The volumes in this series will describe and instigate scholarship that advances our understanding of diversity in organizations In recognition of the centennial anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the U S Constitution which granted American women the right to vote and the subsequent struggle for women of color to exercise it this volume features the personal narratives of recognized scholars in the field who have advanced understanding of gender at work In this way we appreciate and gain perspective on the rewards and challenges of this essential scholarship and the lives of those who engage in it The combination of these narratives is an exciting and meaningful exploration of the study of gender and its intersection with other marginalized social identities at work that authentically captures the experiences of scholars in the field and inventively pushes our understanding of diversity in organizations American Directory of Writer's
