Harvesting the Dream Kate Heyhoe, Stanley Hock, 2004-03-29 Harvesting the Dream is the rare story of a large and successful business that remains family owned and continues to operate on the basis of professional and personal integrity You ll follow the Trinchero family from their common origins in a New York flooded with immigrant families like themselves to their uncommon rise to success to the present business challenges they face in the new Napa Valley Their story brings the American dream to life and underscores the reality that hard work and the willingness to defy well rooted conventions are still the building blocks of business success Harvesting the Dream Kate Heyhoe, Stanley Hock, 2004 The Trincheros treated wine as a business rather than an ego boosting pastime for the already wealthy They understood what customers wanted and unhesitatingly gave it to them As a result wine began to lose its image as the beverage of the elite and became a staple on dinner tables across America At the same time runaway demand for White Zinfandel catapulted Sutter Home to the fourth largest winery in the country But there s far more to the Sutter Home story than just business success This is the rare story of a large and successful business that remains family owned and continues to operate on the basis of professional and personal integrity Genuine generous and humble the Trincheros stand out in glitzy Napa Valley for their philanthropy world class employee programs and long term community involvement The War on Wine Victor W. Geraci, 2023-11-07 The development of an American wine ethos The history of wine is a tale of capitalist production and consumer experience and early Americans embraced the idea of having their own wine culture But many began to believe that excessive alcohol consumption had become a moral ethical economic political social and health conundrum. The result was a national on again off again relationship with the concept of an American wine culture Citizens struggled to build a wine culture patterned after their diasporic European custom of wine as a moderating beverage that was part of a healthy diet Yet as America grew untold attempts to create a wine culture failed due to climate pests diseases wars and depressions resulting in some people considering the nation an alcoholic republic Thus began an anti alcohol culture war aimed at restricting or prohibiting alcoholic beverages With the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment Prohibition a culture war started between wet and dry proponents After the repeal of Prohibition the decimated wine industry responded by forming the Wine Institute to rebrand wine s role in American society after which neoprohibitionists attempted to restrict alcohol availability and consumption To confront these aggressive actions the Wine Institute hired politically trained John A De Luca to navigate the new attacks and pushed for rebranding wine as a cultural spirit with health benefits Crush John Briscoe, 2018-09-04 Winner TopShelf Magazine Book Awards Historical Non fiction Finalist Northern California Book Awards General Non Fiction Look Smell Taste Judge Crush is the 200 year story of the heady dream that wines as good as the greatest of France could be made in California A dream dashed four times in merciless succession until it was ultimately realized in a stunning blind tasting in Paris In that tasting in the year of America's bicentennial California wines took their place as the leading wines of the world

For the first time Briscoe tells the complete and dramatic story of the ascendancy of California wine in vivid detail He also profiles the larger story of California itself by looking at it from an entirely innovative perspective the state seen through its singular wine history With dramatic flair and verve Briscoe not only recounts the history of wine and winemaking in California he encompasses a multidimensional approach that takes into account an array of social political cultural legal and winemaking sources Elements of this history have plot lines that seem scripted by a Sophocles or Shakespeare It is a fusion of wine personal histories cultural and socioeconomic aspects Crush is the story of how wine from California finally gained its global due Briscoe recounts wine s often fickle affair with California now several centuries old from the first harvest and vintage through the four overwhelming catastrophes to its amazing triumph in Paris
