The Emergence of the Ethically-Engaged University Emiliano Bosio, Gustavo

Gregorutti,2023-10-12 This edited volume examines the role of the modern university as a public good institution ethically engaged in social transformation Featuring contributions from internationally recognized scholars across both the Global North and South this collection contextualizes issues in higher education such as community engagement service learning citizenship and civic responsibility both locally and globally e g local regional national and global engagement Each chapter addresses the intangible multifaceted dimensions of the relationships community impact and knowledge generation associated with community collaborations In this way the volume contributes towards the possibility of re imagining the role of the modern university beyond a market oriented passive and de solidarized practices towards a more ethically engaged paradigm based on principles of mutuality reciprocity and social responsibility Social Geographies of Educational Change F. Hernandez,I.F. Goodson,2006-01-16 Social Geographies as spatial location is a factor relevant to understanding the variety of people s interpretations and appropriations of educational innovations and changes Their location in the social space also influences their response to change In the field of educational change social space means for example skin colour gender distribution of teachers in one school children s self cultural representations or parents religious attitudes By using the notion of Social Geographies in the context of educational change the authors address the following questions How initiatives in a classroom or department are influenced by the surrounding context of the school the district or the nation How innovation spreads or diffuses from one school to another How and whether reforms can be scaled up from a few schools to a whole system How seemingly standardised reforms affect schools differently depending on where they are located How schools influence one another How the identities of and interrelationships among schools are affected by technology principles of market competition and choice and other initiatives This volume is relevant to educationalists policy makers teachers and students interested in a more complex approach to understand and intervene in educational change processes

Cultures of Curriculum Pamela Bolotin Joseph,2012-12-06 This txtbk presents the concept of curriculum as culture a system of implicit explicit beliefs values behaviors customs in classrooms schools Goal is to foster awareness examination deliberation about the curricula planned for carried out Professional Care and Vocation Timothy W. Wineberg,2008-01-01 This book integrates the traditional understanding of a profession a calling to selfless service for the public good through the pursuit of a learned art with that of vocation work that offers a deep sense of personal fulfilment meaning and identity Professions are moral endeavours since they require vulnerable individuals to trust in the competence and integrity of someone who professes to care for them Currently most versions of professional ethics narrowly focus upon standards of conduct or upon ethical dilemmas Yet these are rarely compelling enough to change us they are not morally formative This volume takes a different tack to doing ethics It explicitly targets the moral development of educators This is crucial because as we develop our sensibilities of perception and qualities of character we can better interpret practice situations and respond fittingly Moreover this approach to ethics seeks to reconceptualize our professional obligation to embody it in more adequate metaphors and to revitalize its relational dimension In this view our task as educators is to seek out those relational metaphors images and narratives of practice which are profound enough to shape our self perceptions and to fund our moral formation This book explores five ethical spheres sacrifice community craft tradition and moral imagination and five respective pedagogical images which illuminate the nature of professional care servant moral friend mentor covenantor and moral companion When critically engaged and appropriated these rich metaphorical images provide clarity order and meaning to our perceptions and powerful imperatives for our own moral development
