

The background of the image is a dense crowd of stylized human figures. Each figure is represented by a solid-colored head and a simple, rounded body. The colors for the heads include various shades of red, orange, yellow, brown, and black, representing a wide range of ethnicities. The bodies are in shades of blue, green, and grey. The figures are packed closely together, creating a sense of a large gathering or protest. In the center of the image, a white rectangular sign with a black border is held up. The sign contains the text "FIGHT AGAINST RACISM" in a bold, black, sans-serif font, arranged in three lines.

Fighting Racism and Discrimination UNESCO,2023-11-29 Racism and Anti-Racism in Europe Alana Lentin,2004-06-20 Remarkable a major contribution to our understanding and handling of one of the crucial contemporary issues that acquires more gravity by the day Zygmunt Bauman This is an in depth sociological study of the phenomenon of anti racism as both political discourse and social movement practice in western Europe Lentin develops a comparative study of anti racism in Britain France Italy and Ireland While race and racism have been submitted to many profound analyses anti racism has often been dealt with as either the mere opposite of racism or as a theme for prescriptives or polemics by those concerned with the persistence of racist discrimination By contrast this book views anti racism as a variety of discourses that are central to the understanding of the politics of modern states Examining anti racism gives us insights not only into current debates on citizenship immigration and Europeanisation but it also crucially assists us in understanding the nature of race racism and racialisation themselves At a time of mounting state racism against asylum seekers migrants and refugees throughout Europe and beyond this book provides a much needed exploration of the discourse of anti racism that shapes policy and public opinion today Reinhold Niebuhr against Racism Ronald H. Stone,2024-10-18 This is Ronald Stone s fifth book on his mentor and friend Reinhold Niebuhr For the first time he analyzes all of Niebuhr s writings on race to correct the academic work of critics of Niebuhr who have ignored Niebuhr s creation of institutions fighting white supremacy in the South and who commented on Niebuhr while not reading his complete works It also publishes the text of his work as chairman of the mayor s committee on race in the strife torn Detroit of 1926 Stone argues that Niebuhr s work in total provides a complex theory for white and Black leaders to overcome white supremacy Niebuhr combines idealism and realism in the bulk of his work which is summarized in the two words of his well known social theory Christian Realism Both words need to be recognized to understand the depth of Niebuhr s synthesis As early as 1932 Niebuhr recognized the need for minorities to use economic power and Gandhian nonviolent strategies to overcome color or caste discrimination As late as the year of his death in 1971 he recommended to the Bicentennial Commission as one of three national priorities the overcoming of the racial discrimination that threatened American democracy Racism as sin is central to his theology and the breaking of white supremacy is essential to his hundreds of essays and editorials against racial discrimination and to democratic theory As editor of Social Action in 1968 Stone published The Fate of the Negro in a Self Righteous Nation widely regarded as Niebuhr s best essay on the subject and marking Niebuhr s late analysis and his development between the two commission reports of 1926 and 1968 Another relatively unknown source of Niebuhr on racism is the seminar he taught from 1966 to 1968 It is reconstructed by Stone from the class notes of the seminar in which he served as class assistant To complete the circle James Cone asked Stone to lecture in his seminar the last three years he offered the seminar on Reinhold Niebuhr Racism and Anti-Racism in Canada David Este,2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Multiculturalism is regarded as a key feature of Canada's national identity. Yet despite an increasingly diverse population, racialized Canadians are systematically excluded from full participation in society through personal and structural forms of racism and discrimination. Race and Anti-Racism in Canada provides readers with a critical examination of how racism permeates Canadian society and articulates the complex ways to bring about equity and inclusion both individually and systemically.

Anti-racism and Multiculturalism

Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08. All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature; often the published scholarly work of one established discipline. This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations, even though not of relevance only to that field. The professed goal of international relations is international peace. The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti-racism. Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order, there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo-scientific racism. Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism, colonialism, the Holocaust, and apartheid. Race has been debunked as a myth. Because of this racism, the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren. But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains. The contributors to this volume consider five questions: How does the literature on anti-racism improve our understanding of conflict resolution? How does the analysis of the media's role in racist and anti-racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda? How can research on anti-racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping? What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity? How and why should the literature on anti-racism expand research in international relations? This is a unique, worthwhile framework for cross-disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict.

Racism and Anti-Racism Today

Amanuel Elias, 2024-05-02. Acknowledging efforts to dismantle racism at multiple levels, this book examines racism and anti-racism as interconnected rather than isolated issues, proposing a framework for effective anti-racist policy and practice.

Against Racism

Monica Moreno Figueroa, Peter Wade, 2022-03-22. Powerful narratives often describe Latin American nations as fundamentally mestizo. These narratives have hampered the acknowledgment of racism in the region, but recent multiculturalist reforms have increased recognition of Black and Indigenous identities and cultures. Multiculturalism may focus on identity and visibility and address more casual and social forms of racism but can also distract attention from structural racism and racialized inequality and constrain larger anti-racist initiatives. Additionally, multiple understandings of how racism and anti-racism fit into projects of social transformation make racism a complex and multifaceted issue. The essays in Against Racism examine actors in Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, and Mexico that move beyond recognition politics to address structural inequalities and material conflicts and build common ground with other marginalized groups. The organizations in this study advocate an approach to deep social structural transformation that is

Anti-racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament Jennifer E. Cheng, 2017-11-15 Anti racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament examines anti racist discourse in contemporary Australian politics in particular how politicians contest and challenge racism against a minority group that does not constitute a traditional race Using critical discourse analysis this book firstly deconstructs the racist xenophobic and discriminatory arguments against Muslims Secondly it highlights the anti racist counter discourse to these arguments Since blatantly racist statements are less common nowadays the book focuses on manifestations of culturalist racism It does this by investigating how talk about Muslims positions them as not Australian or as not belonging to Australia the book takes such discursive exclusion from the nation as one of the most widespread forms of culturalist racism in Western liberal democracies In addition to contributing to the theoretical discussion on the relationship between Muslims racism and anti racism the book expands on methods that apply critical discourse analysis and the discourse historical approach by providing a practical guide to analysing anti racist political discourses
