File 23 The Shocking Truth About Canada:

The False Traitor Albert Raimundo Braz, 2003-01-01 The nineteenth century M tis politician and mystic Louis Riel has emerged as one of the most popular and elusive figures in Canadian culture Since his hanging for treason in 1885 the self declared David of the New World has been depicted variously as a traitor to Confederation a French Canadian and Catholic martyr a bloodthirsty rebel a pan American liberator a pawn of shadowy white forces a Prairie political maverick a First Nations hero an alienated intellectual a victim of Western industrial progress and even a Father of Confederation Albert Braz synthesizes the available material by and about Riel including film sculpture and cartoons as well as literature in French and English and analyzes how an historical figure could be portrayed in such contradictory ways In light of the fact that most aesthetic representations of Riel bear little resemblance not only to one another but also to their purported model Braz suggests that they reveal less about Riel than they do about their authors and the society to which they belong The most comprehensive treatment of the representations of Louis Riel in Canadian literature The False Traitor will be a seminal work in the study of this popular Canadian figure Canadian Book Review Annual ,1986 Quill & Quire ,1986 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1986 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Canadiana ,1987 New Canadian Quotations John Robert Colombo,1987 Canadian Books in Print ,1988

The Bumper Book John Metcalf,1986 When Kicking Against the Pricks was published in 1982 readers across Canada were angered surprised titillated and gratified Finally a major Canadian author had spoken his mind about Canadian literature and its writers and in the process had actually named names In the intervening four years hundreds of people have testified to ECW representatives at conferences and displays that Pricks was one of the best written most provocative books they had ever read And it was very very funny The only way to surpass Pricks was to encourage other disgruntled Canadian authors to contribute to a follow up volume known internally as Pricks Two Metcalf has solicited articles and poems from such excellent writers as Norman Snider Irving Layton Fraser Sutherland Louis Dudek John Mills Brian Fawcett and Doug Gibson Among the topics and writers covered are the Canada Council the characters in the novels of Robertson Davies Canadian nationalism Margaret Atwood s Survival Canadian theatre the taxman and the writer Canadian humor the problems with Canadian publishing as well as a piece by George Woodcock on how the arts councils steer the arts There is even a prescription for how to become a famous Canadian poet Find out why Most of the academics who have busied themselves with CanLit have been unsparkling Others like Robin Matthews burn with such a fierce love for tedious old verbiage that their devotion is probably better explain in psychiatric rather than literary terms Or why The English department is usually a heap of deadwood in the middle of a university Or It is only in the isolation of English Canada that Robertson Davies can preserve his sense of comfortable superiority The Bumper Book comes out swinging at the sacred cows of CanLit What Comes After Occupy? Todd A. Comer,2015-10-05 Occupy Wall Street as centered in New York City received much publicity

Little attention however has been granted to the hundreds of Occupy groups in marginal locations whose creative politics were certainly not limited by the influential example of Occupy in Zuccotti Park This volume rectifies this oversight with thirteen essays critically addressing the politics of occupation in places such as Indiana Oregon Texas Ohio Pennsylvania Montana and California It initiates an interdisciplinary and critical discussion concerned with the importance of the local to contemporary politics the evolution of Occupy Wall Street tactics as they changed to fit differing non spectacular contexts and what worked or did not work politically in various contexts All of the above is designed to inform and improve that as of yet unnamed movement which will come after Occupy Boasting scholars from sociology English anthropology peace studies and history the volume is divided into three major sections Occupying the Local Promise and Predicament Occupying Space and Borders South East and West and Occupying the Media Local Regional and National Dilemmas Book Review Digest

,1986 Whose National Security? Gary Kinsman,Dieter K. Buse,Mercedes Steedman,2000-10-01 Would you believe that RCMP operatives used to spy on Tupperware parties In the 1950s and 60s they did They also monitored high school students gays and lesbians trade unionists left wing political groups feminists consumer s associations Black activists First Nations people and Quebec sovereigntists The establishment of a tenacious Canadian security state came as no accident On the contrary the highest levels of government and the police along with non governmental interests and institutions were involved in a concerted campaign The security state grouped ordinary Canadians into dozens of political stereotypes and labelled them as threats Whose National Security probes the security state s ideologies and hidden agendas and sheds light on threats to democracy that persist to the present day The contributors varied approaches open up avenues for reconceptualizing the nature of spying The Imperial Curriculum J. Mangan,2012-05-04 This volume presents the first comparative analysis of racial attitudes in the formal schooling of both Britain and its former dominions and colonies The various contributions examine the issue right across the British imperial experience with case studies ranging from Canada Ireland East and South Africa through the Indian subcontinent to Australia and New Zealand Racial indoctrination is considered from the perspective of both colonizer and colonized The central theme throughout is that a racial hierarchy was taught through both curriculum and text in schools throughout the former British Empire File 23 Orland French,1985
