Film Production Theory:

Film Production Theory Jean-Pierre Geuens, 2000-03-31 Most serious film books during the last twenty years have focused on theoretical issues film history or film analyses leaving production to the side This text however appropriate for film production courses fills that void opening the production process to pertinent argumentative notions and incorporating material from Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Derrida among others Although Geuens covers screenwriting lighting staging and framing among other production issues he avoids the strictly vocational or professional approach to film teaching currently applied to most production courses Geuens reevaluates what cinema could be to revive its full powers and attend to the mystery of the creative process To counter Hollywood's normative machinery he suggests taking back from the professionals important notions they have arrogated for themselves but rarely act upon artistry passion and engagement

Film Production Theory Jean-Pierre Geuens, 2000-03-31 Integrates contemporary film theory into the teaching of film production presenting alternatives to the standard Hollywood model of filmmaking Film Production Stephen Hoover, 2013-12 Film producing from idea to distribution Handy guide for the independent producer on developing material pre production production and post Suitable for textbook Film Production Theory in Disconnected, Last Stand at

Black Rock, Opus 27 John Harper Philbin, 1995 Applying the Actor-Network Theory in Media Studies Spöhrer, Markus, Ochsner, Beate, 2016-08-24 Actor Network Theory ANT originally a social theory seeks to organize objects and non human entities into social networks Its most innovative claim approaches these networks outside the anthropocentric view including both humans and non human objects as active participants in a social context because of this the theory has applications in a myriad of domains not merely in the social sciences Applying the Actor Network Theory in Media Studies applies this novel approach to media studies This publication responds to the current trends in international media studies by presenting ANT as the new theoretical paradigm through which meaningful discussion and analysis of the media its production and its social and cultural effects Featuring both case studies and theoretical and methodical meditations this timely publication thoroughly considers the possibilities of these disparate yet divergent fields This book is intended for use by researchers students sociologists and media analysts concerned with contemporary media studies The Bloomsbury

Handbook of North Korean Cinema Travis Workman, Dong Hoon Kim, Immanuel Kim, 2025-01-23 This first handbook on North Korean cinema contests the assumption that North Korean film is unwatchable in terms of both quality and accessibility refusing to reduce North Korean cinema to political propaganda and focusing on its aesthetic forms and cultural meanings Since its founding in 1948 the Democratic People's Republic of Korea North Korea has played diverse roles a Cold War communist threat to the US the other half of a divided nation to South Korea an ally to the Soviet Union and China one model for anti colonialism to national liberation movements an exotic political and cultural anomaly in the era of globalization This handbook provides a solid and diverse foundation for the expanding scholarship on North Korean cinema It is also a road map for connecting this field to broader issues in film and media studies film history affect and ideology genre and transnational cinema cultures By connecting the worlds of North Korean cinema to broader questions in global cinema studies this book explores the complexity of a national cinema too often reduced to a single image Media/cultural Studies Rhonda Hammer, Douglas Kellner, 2009 This anthology is designed to assist teachers and students in learning how to better understand and interpret our common culture and everyday life With a focus on contemporary media consumer and digital culture this book combines classic and original writings by both leading and rising scholars in the field The chapters present key theories concepts and methodologies of critical cultural and media studies as well as cutting edge research into new media Sections on teaching media cultural studies and concrete case studies provide practical examples that illuminate contemporary culture ranging from new forms of digital media and consumer culture to artifacts from TV and film including Barbie and Big Macs soap operas Talk TV Facebook and YouTube The lively articles show that media cultural studies is an exciting and relevant arena and this text should enable students and citizens to become informed readers and critics of their culture and society

The Critical Practice of Film Elspeth Kydd, 2017-09-16 The Critical Practice of Film introduces film studies and production through the integration of criticism theory and practice Its approach is that of critical practice a process that explores the integration and intersection between the critical analysis of films and the practical aspects of filmmaking In other words this book is both an introduction to the ways in which we watch films as well as an introduction to how films are created The more you know about how films are made the more you can appreciate the artistry involved in a film Author Elspeth kydd combines explorations of basic technical and aesthetic principles with extended analyses drawn from both classic and contemporary Hollywood and other world cinemas including Battleship Potemkin 1927 Un Chien Andalou 1929 Stagecoach 1939 Mildred Pierce 1945 Notorious 1946 Letter from an Unknown Woman 1948 Gentlemen Prefer Blondes 1953 Breathless 1959 Memories of Underdevelopment 1968 Star Wars 1977 Raiders of the Lost Ark 1981 Distant Voices Still Lives 1988 The Matrix 1999 Amores Perros 2000 Gosford Park 2001 and The Lord of the Rings trilogy 2001 3 Also included is a range of exercises designed to stimulate critical and analytical thought and help to demystify the process of creative mediamaking Assignments range in scale from simple storyboarding and narrative development exercises that may be explored with minimal technology to more complex video projects that can be adapted to suit varying levels of technical skill The Critical Practice of Film provides an accessible introduction to the theory and practice of film studies integrating creative practice with critical and theoretical engagement to guide students towards an engaged form of creative expression and an active role as reviewer and critic Beautifully presented this ground breaking text offers all students an integrated understanding of film criticism and production Elspeth kydd is a Senior Lecturer in Film Studies and Video Production at the University of the West of England She has taught researched and published in film and television studies for nearly twenty years as well as being an active documentary videomaker This book developed from teaching integrated theory practice film
