Teaching Reading and Teacher Beliefs Xinyu Mo,2020-09-30 This book explores language teacher beliefs in English as a Foreign Language EFL reading instruction in the context of Chinese university English instructors Since the 1990s there has been a renewed interest on teacher beliefs in the domain of language teacher cognition However most studies in this area aim at investigating the relationship between particular aspects of teacher beliefs and classroom practices largely ignoring the complexity of teacher beliefs This study explores the issue from an alternative perspective by conceptualizing teacher beliefs as a complex dynamic and multi faceted system By adopting five rounds of interview and four classroom observations the year long study reveals seven key features of the belief system shared among six participants It calls for the holistic complex and insider view to examine teacher beliefs in relation to the sociocultural and historical contexts where the teachers work and live Journal of Research of the National Bureau of Standards United States.
