Filming The Great Gatsby:

Filming The Great Gatsby Bruce Bahrenburg, Francis Scott Fitzgerald, 1974      F. Scott Fitzgerald on Silent Film Martina Mastandrea, 2022-08-15 F Scott Fitzgerald on Silent Film recalibrates the celebrated author's early career and brings fresh understanding to the life of one of America's truly great literary figures. Scholars have previously focused on Fitzgerald's connection with Hollywood when he worked in Tinseltown as a screenwriter in the 1930s. However, this groundbreaking research reveals the key role that Silent Hollywood played in establishing Fitzgerald's burgeoning reputation in the early to mid 1920s. Vividly written and drawing on a wealth of new sources, this book documents Martina Mastandrea's exciting discovery of the first film ever adapted from a work by Fitzgerald      Fitzgerald and Hemingway on Film Candace Ursula Grissom, 2014-04-02 A comprehensive guide to all major film adaptations based on the novels of F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway, this is essential for scholars of American modernism and film studies. The author takes the approach that all visual and printed literature is born from a cycle of celebrity culture in which authors continually create new works and reconstruct their personal images based on audience reception. The text includes two dozen reviews of individual films from the silent era to present-day hits such as Baz Luhrmann's The Great Gatsby as well as critical commentary from leading scholars of both modernist literature and film studies      Fitzgerald and the Influence of Film Gautam Kundu, 2007-10-08 This work explores the many ways in which the developing film industry of the early twentieth century influenced the writings of F Scott Fitzgerald, focusing specifically on his novels This Side of Paradise, The Great Gatsby, Tender Is the Night, and the incomplete The Last Tycoon. The Beautiful and the Damned is also discussed briefly. Early chapters examine Fitzgerald's literary adaptation of visual film techniques: pans, freeze frames, slow motion, and aural cinematic concepts: sound effects, diegetic sound. Within his most popular novels, the final chapter summarizes the effect such techniques had in augmenting and defining Fitzgerald's unique literary style      Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition. Volume one examines the film as film; volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film; volume three draws on the history of film; and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors, sources, and historical information, as well as an index of authors, titles, and film personalities      William Powell Roger Bryant, 2014-12-09 Actor William Powell is perhaps best known for his roles as charming Nick in The Thin Man films and blustery Clarence Day in Life with Father. As diverse as those characters are, they don't begin to reveal the full scope of talent demonstrated by one of Hollywood's most intelligent leading men. Elegant, witty, and dignified, Powell created accessible and human characters in a great variety of roles. His talent was such that Powell has a large and growing fan base 50 years after his last film was released, evidenced by the popularity of DVD rereleases and the frequent appearance of his films on cable television. The focus of this book is Powell's work in more than 90 films from the silent era to the age of CinemaScope, woven into the dramatic and touching story of the actor's life. It begins

by leaping into how Powell and actress Myrna Loy were launched to stardom as husband and wife Nick and Nora Charles in The Thin Man The next chapter sets the stage for the baby Powell's entry into the world in 1892 and details his childhood and upbringing Following chapters trace Powell's journey into the film industry his early career as a popular villain and his transition to talkies in the late 1920s aided by his stage training The book details his work at Warner Bros which turned him into a leading man and his years of stardom at MGM The book describes turning points in Powell's life the death of lover Jean Harlow a 21 month hiatus from films while the actor battled cancer and a new leap to the top in Life with Father Concluding chapters detail another flurry of films and the actor's retirement A filmography lists Powell's films from 1922 to 1955 including those believed to be lost

Bonfires of the American Dream in American Rhetoric, Literature and Film Daniel Shaviro, 2022-06-14 How could American social solidarity have so collapsed that we cannot even cooperate in fighting a pandemic One problem lies in how our values mutate and intersect in an era of runaway high end inequality and evaporating upward mobility Under such conditions the American Dream's seeming to suggest falsely that those who succeed economically are winners while the rest of us are losers puts it in dire conflict with our traditions of democracy and egalitarianism In Bonfires of the American Dream through close cultural studies of classic novels and films Atlas Shrugged The Great Gatsby It's a Wonderful Life and The Wolf of Wall Street Daniel Shaviro helps to provide a better understanding of what went wrong culturally in America

The Figure in Film N. Roy Clifton, 1983 An application of the classical figures of speech to the criticism of the motion picture The author defines and illustrates each figure by literary analysis then presents the filmic analogies The occurrence in film of fantasy allegory and abstraction are also discussed

Suicide in the Entertainment Industry David K. Frasier, 2015-09-11 This work covers 840 intentional suicide cases initially reported in Daily Variety the entertainment industry's trade journal but also drawing attention from mainstream news media These cases are taken from the ranks of vaudeville film theatre dance music literature writers with direct connections to film and other allied fields in the entertainment industry from 1905 through 2000 Accidentally self inflicted deaths are omitted except for a few controversial cases It includes the suicides of well known personalities such as actress Peg Entwistle who is the only person to ever commit suicide by jumping from the top of the Hollywood Sign Marilyn Monroe and Dorothy Dandridge who are believed to have overdosed on drugs and Richard Farnsworth and Brian Keith who shot themselves to end the misery of terminal cancer Also mentioned but in less detail are the suicides of unknown and lesser known members of the entertainment industry Arranged alphabetically each entry covers the person's personal and professional background method of suicide and in some instances includes actual statements taken from the suicide note

American Literature on Stage and Screen Thomas S. Hischak, 2014-01-10 The 525 notable works of 19th and 20th century American fiction in this reference book have many stage movie television and video adaptations Each literary work is described and then every adaptation is examined with a discussion of how accurate the version is and how well it succeeds in conveying the spirit of the original in a different medium In addition to famous novels and short stories by authors such as Nathaniel Hawthorne F Scott Fitzgerald and Willa Cather many bestsellers mysteries children s books young adult books horror novels science fiction detective stories and sensational potboilers from the past two centuries are examined

The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins, 2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message

Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn t as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader s own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
