Filming Literature The Art Of Screen Adaptation:

Filming Literature Neil Sinyard, 1986-01-01 Literature Through Film Robert Stam, 2004-10-22 This lively and accessible textbook written by an expert in film studies provides a fascinating introduction to the process and art of literature to film adaptations Provides a lively rigorous and clearly written account of key moments in the history of the novel from Don Quixote and Robinson Crusoe up to Lolita and One Hundred Years of Solitude Includes diversity of topics and titles such as Fielding Nabokov and Cervantes in adaptations by Welles Kubrick and the French New Wave Emphasizes both the literary texts themselves and their varied transtextual film adaptations Examines numerous literary trends from the self conscious novel to magic realism before exploring the cinematic impact of the movement Reinvigorates the field of adaptation studies by examining it through the grid of contemporary theory Brings novels and film adaptations into the age of multiculturalism postcoloniality and the Internet by reflecting on their contemporary relevance The Ashgate Research Companion to Thomas Hardy Rosemarie Morgan, 2016-03-23 In The Ashgate Research Companion to Thomas Hardy some of the most prominent Hardy specialists working today offer an overview of Hardy scholarship and suggest new directions in Hardy studies The contributors cover virtually every area relevant to Hardy s fiction and poetry including philosophy palaeontology biography science film popular culture beliefs gender music masculinity tragedy topography psychology metaphysics illustration bibliographical studies and contemporary response While several collections have surveyed the Hardy landscape no previous volume has been composed especially for scholars and advanced graduate students This companion is specially designed to aid original research on Hardy and serve as the critical basis for Hardy studies in the new millennium Among the features are a comprehensive bibliography that includes not only works in English but in acknowledgment of Hardy s explosion in popularity around the world also works in languages other than English Filming Literature Neil Sinyard, 2013-07-18 This is a comprehensive survey of the relationship between film and literature It looks at the cinematic adaptations of such literary masters as Shakespeare Henry James Joseph Conrad and D H Lawrence and considers the contribution to the cinema made by important literary figures as Harold Pinter James Aggrey and Graham Greene Elsewhere the book draws intriguing analogies between certain literary and film artists such as Dickens and Chaplin Ford and Twain and suggests that such analogies can throw fresh light on the subjects under review Another chapter considers the film genre of the bio pic the numerous cinematic attempts to render in concrete terms the complexities of the literary life whether the writer be Proust Joyce Oscar Wilde Dashiell Hammett Agatha Christie or Boris Pasternak Originally published in 1986 this is a book to appeal to any reader with an interest in film or literature and is of especial value to those involved in the teaching or study of either subject Race, Sexuality, and Gender and the Musical Screen Adaptation Dominic Broomfield-McHugh, 2023 The second of three volumes Race Sexuality and Gender and the Musical Screen Adaptation An Oxford Handbook traces how the genre of the stage to screen musical has evolved focusing in particular of issues of race gender and sexuality Enduringly popular adaptations such as Kiss Me Kate and Pal Joey are considered through the lens of identity while several chapters consider how different adaptations of the same stage musical reflect shifting historical contexts Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies

Re-Covered Rose Marco Sonzogni, 2011-12-07 When a reader picks up a book the essence of the text has been translated into the visual space of the cover Using Umberto Eco's bestseller The Name of the Rose as a case study this is the first study of book cover design as a form of intersemiotic translation based on the purposeful selection of visual signs to represent verbal signs As an act of translation the cover of a book ought to be an equivalent representation of the text But in the absence of any established interpretive criteria how can equivalence between the visual and the verbal be determined and interpreted Re-Covered Rose tackles this question in an original and creative way laying the foundation for a new research trend in Translation Studies Marco Sonzogni is Senior Lecturer in Italian School of Languages and Cultures Victoria University of Wellington New Zealand A widely published academic and an award winning editor poet and literary translator he is the Director of the New Zealand Centre for Literary Translation Te Tumu Whakawhiti Tuhinga

From Fidelity to History Anne-Marie Scholz, 2013-04-01 Scholarly approaches to the relationship between literature and film ranging from the traditional focus upon fidelity to more recent issues of intertextuality all contain a significant blind spot a lack of theoretical and methodological attention to adaptation as an historical and transnational phenomenon This book argues for a historically informed approach to American popular culture that reconfigures the classically defined adaptation phenomenon as a form of transnational reception Focusing on several case studies including the films Sense and Sensibility 1995 and The Portrait of a Lady 1997 and the classics The Third Man 1949 and The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 the author demonstrates the ways adapted literary works function as social and cultural events in history and how these become important sites of cultural negotiation and struggle

Adaptations Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2013-06-17 Adaptations considers the theoretical and practical difficulties surrounding the translation of a text into film and the reverse process the novelisation of films Through three sets of case studies the contributors examine the key debates surrounding adaptations whether screen versions of literary classics can be faithful to the text if something as capsulated as Jane Austen's irony can even be captured on film whether costume dramas always of their own time and do adaptations remake their parent text to reflect contemporary ideas and concerns Tracing the complex alterations which texts experience between different media Adaptations is a unique exploration of the relationship between text and film

Fear, Cultural Anxiety, and Transformation Scott A. Lukas, John Marmysz, 2010-01-01 The contributors to this volume explore the themes of fear cultural anxiety and transformation as expressed in remade horror science fiction and fantasy films While opening on a note that emphasizes the compulsion of filmmakers to revisit issues concerning fear and anxiety this collection ends with a suggestion that repeated confrontation with these issues allows the opportunity for creative and positive transformation

When Stories Travel Cristina Della Coletta, 2012-03-19 Adapting fiction into film is as author Cristina Della Coletta asserts a transformative encounter that takes place not just across media but across different cultures In this book Della Coletta explores what it means when the translation of fiction into film involves writers directors and audiences who belong to national historical and cultural formations different from that of the adapted work In particular Della Coletta examines narratives and films belonging to Italian North American French and Argentine cultures These include Luchino Visconti s adaptation of James M Cain s The Postman Always Rings Twice Federico Fellini s version of Edgar Allan Poe s story Never Bet the Devil Your Head Alain Corneau s film based on Antonio Tabucchi s Notturmo indiano and Bernardo Bertolucci s take on Jorge Luis Borges s Tema del traidor y del hroe In her framework for analyzing these cross cultural film adaptations Della Coletta borrows from the philosophical hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and calls for a hermeneutics of estrangement a practice of mediation and adaptation that defines cultures nations selfhoods and their aesthetic achievements in terms of their transformative encounters Stories travel to unexpected and interesting places when adapted into film by people of diverse cultures While the intended meaning of the author may not be perfectly reproduced it still holds Della Coletta argues an equally valid and important intellectual claim upon its interpreters With a firm grasp on the latest developments in adaptation theory Della Coletta invites scholars of media studies cultural history comparative literature and adaptation studies to deepen their understanding of this critical encounter between texts writers readers and cultural movements

Thomas Hardy on Screen T. R. Wright, 2005 A stimulating collection of essays analysing adaptations of this most cinematic of novelists

Adaptations in the Sound Era Deborah Cartmell, 2015-07-30 There is no disputing that the coming of sound heralded a new era for adaptations We take it for granted today that a film is enhanced by sound but it was not a view unanimously held in the early period of sound cinema While there was a substantial degree of skepticism in the late 1920s and early 30s about the advantages of sound what we would call technophobia today the inclusion of speech in screen versions of literary and theatrical works undeniably revised what it was to be an adaptation words Focusing on promotional materials Adaptations in the Sound Era tracks early attempts to promote sound through the elevation of words in adaptations in the early sound period The popular appeal of these films clearly stands in opposition to academic regard for them and the book reflects on the presence and marketing of words in a variety of adaptations from the introduction of sound in the late 1920s to the mid 1930s This book contextualizes a range of adaptations in relation to debates about picturizations of books in the early sound era including reactions to the talking adaptation by writers such as Irwin Panofsky Aldous Huxley and Graham Greene Film adaptations of Shakespeare Dickens gothic fiction and biopics are also discussed in relation to their use and promotion of sound or more precisely words A Companion to the British and Irish Novel, 1945 - 2000 Brian W. Shaffer, 2008-04-15 A Companion to the British and Irish Novel 1945 2000 serves as an extended introduction and reference guide to the British and Irish novel between the close of World War II and the turn of the millennium Covers a wide range of authors from Samuel Beckett to Salman Rushdie Provides readings of key novels including Graham Greene s Heart of the Matter Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea and Kazuo Ishiguro s The Remains of the Day Considers particular subgenres such as the feminist novel and the postcolonial novel Discusses overarching cultural political and literary trends such as screen adaptations and the literary prize phenomenon Gives readers a sense of the richness and diversity of the novel during this period and of the vitality with which it continues to be discussed Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01 The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general Written with university students in mind these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today s cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class The book is aimed at students teachers and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann s relatively brief Ten Great Films 136 pp 2012 The current work offers twenty one illustrated essays Kauffmann s book contains no images and focuses on Europe The countries represented are France Italy England Hungary Belgium Sweden Scotland Denmark Russia Spain Germany Scotland and Finland Twenty One Landmark European Films 1939 1999 overlaps with Kauffmann s book only in the case of L avventura though the two approach this film from vastly different angles Moreover the book provides a complete critical apparatus notes bibliographies credits and filmographies whereas Kauffmann s has none This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan s A Short Guide to Writing about Film 8th edition 2011 It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation Western European Cinema History of Film or Global Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination
