Translation and Adaptation in Theatre and Film Katja Krebs,2013-08-15 This book provides a pioneering and provocative exploration of the rich synergies between adaptation studies and translation studies and is the first genuine attempt to discuss the rather loose usage of the concepts of translation and adaptation in terms of theatre and film At the heart of this collection is the proposition that translation studies and adaptation studies have much to offer each other in practical and theoretical terms and can no longer exist independently from one another As a result it generates productive ideas within the contact zone between these two fields of study both through new theoretical paradigms and detailed case studies Such closely intertwined areas as translation and adaptation need to encounter each other s methodologies and perspectives in order to develop ever more rigorous approaches to the study of adaptation and translation phenomena challenging current assumptions and prejudices in terms of both The book includes contributions as diverse yet interrelated as Bakhtin s notion of translation and adaptation Bollywood adaptations of Shakespeare s Othello and an analysis of performance practice itself arguably an adaptive practice which uses a variety of languages from English and Greek to British and International Sign Language As translation and adaptation practices are an integral part of global cultural and political activities and agendas it is ever more important to study such occurrences of rewriting and reshaping By exploring and investigating interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives and approaches this volume investigates the impact such occurrences of rewriting have on the constructions and experiences of cultures while at the same time developing a rigorous methodological framework which will form the basis of future scholarship on performance and film translation and adaptation

Teaching Literary Theory Using Film Adaptations Kathleen L. Brown,2009-03-12 This volume introduces ways to use film to ease the difficulty of introducing complex literary theories to students By coupling works of literature with attendant films and with critical essays the author provides instructors with accessible avenues for encouraging classroom discussion Literary theories covered in depth are psychoanalytic criticism The Awakening and film adaptations The End of August and Grand Isle cultural criticism A Streetcar Named Desire and its 1951 film version and thematic criticism Ode to Intimations of Immortality from Recollections of Early Childhood and the film adaptation Splendor in the Grass Other theories are used to clarify and support those referred to above The work then includes a survey of the image patterns into which film adaptation theories can be grouped and how these theories relate to traditional literary theory The Cinema of Italy Giorgio Bertellini, 2004 Giorgio Bertellini examines the historical and aesthetic connections of some of Italy's most important films with both Italian and Western film culture Dante's Inferno, The Indiana Critical Edition Dante

Alighieri, 1995-06-22 This new critical edition including Mark Musa's classic translation provides students with a clear readable verse translation accompanied by ten innovative interpretations of Dante's masterpiece The History of French Literature on Film Kate Griffiths, Andrew Watts, 2020-12-24 French novels plays poems and short stories however temporally or culturally distant from us continue to be incarnated and reincarnated on cinema screens across the world From the silent films of Georges Méliès to the Hollywood production of Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary directed by Sophie Barthes The History of French Literature on Film explores the key films directors and movements that have shaped the adaptation of works by French authors since the end of the 19th century Across six chapters Griffiths and Watts examine the factors that have driven this vibrant adaptive industry as filmmakers have turned to literature in search of commercial profits cultural legitimacy and stories rich in dramatic potential The volume also explains how the work of theorists from a variety of disciplines literary theory translation theory adaptation theory can help to deepen both our understanding and our appreciation of literary adaptation as a creative practice Finally this volume seeks to make clear that adaptation is never a simple transcription of an earlier literary work It is always simultaneously an adaptation of the society and era for which it is created Adaptations of French literature are thus not only valuable artistic artefacts in their own right so too are they important historical documents which testify to the values and tastes of their own time St. Paul Pier Paolo

Pasolini, 2014-07-15 Presented here for the first time in English is a remarkable screenplay about the apostle Paul by Pier Paolo Pasolini legendary filmmaker novelist poet and radical intellectual activist Written between the appearance of his renowned film Teorema and the shocking controversial Salò or the 120 Days of Sodom St Paul was deemed too risky for investors At once a political intervention and cinematic breakthrough the script forces a revolutionary transformation on the contemporary legacy of Paul In Pasolini's kaleidoscope we encounter fascistic movements resistance fighters and faltering revolutions each of which reflects on aspects of the Pauline teachings From Jerusalem to Wall Street and Greenwich Village from the rise of SS troops to the death of Martin Luther King Jr here as Alain Badiou writes in the foreword Paul's text crosses all these circumstances intact as if it had foreseen them all This is a key addition to the growing debate around St Paul and to the proliferation of literature centred on the current turn to religion in philosophy and critical theory which embraces contemporary figures such as Alain Badiou Slavoj Zizek and Giorgio Agamben New Reflections on Primo Levi R. Sodi, M. Marcus, 2011-07-04 This book presents a baker's dozen of interpretative keys to Levi's output and thought It deepens our understanding of common themes in Levi studies memory and witness while exploring unusual and revealing byways Levi and Calvino or Levi and theater for example The Cinema of Ettore Scola Rémi Lanzoni, Edward Bowen, 2020-09-08 The Cinema of Ettore Scola makes Scola accessible to English reading audiences and helps readers better understand his film style the major themes of his work and the representations of twentieth century Italian history in his films The Concept of Resistance in Italy, Maria Laura Mosco, Pietro Pirani, 2017-05-24 The Concept of Resistance in Italy brings together experts from different fields to reflect in a new comprehensive critical approach on an event that has shaped the young Italian nation from the onset of Fascism in the early 20s Although grounded in the Italian context its theoretical frameworks provided by the variety of disciplines involved in the volume will prove beneficial for any critical discourse on the concept of resistance nowadays Moving from a reflection on the legacy of the Italian Resistance to Fascism and the Resistance Movement born in the latest years of WWII when Italy witnessed the presence on its territory of foreign troops from opposite corners and was involved in a Civil War at the very same time this collection reassesses the concept of Resistance within the Italian 20th and 21st century cultural context moving beyond historical perspectives The multidisciplinary scope allows for an historical philosophical and artistic exploration of the concrete actions that define resistance to Fascism and the Resistance Movement during WWII their representations in literature cinema and music and the more abstract philosophical concept of Resistance in a rapidly changing globalized world with oppressive political orders new global economic structures and emerging new philosophical fields Conrad on Film Gene M. Moore, 1997-11-27 This book offers the first comprehensive international survey of more than eighty films and videos based on the life and work of Joseph Conrad Essays by leading film and literary scholars examine the films both in the context of film history and technology and in terms of the theoretical and practical problems facing directors including Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Francis Ford Coppola and Andrzej Wajda who have attempted to put Conrad on film Conrad was the first major English author to adapt his work for the screen and the story of his unpublished film play is told in an important chapter The challenges of finding visual analogues for Conrad's narrative irony and filmic equivalents for his narrators are also examined The volume is well illustrated and includes a detailed filmography and film bibliography making it a landmark study of Conrad films and film adaptations in general Federico Fellini Frank Burke, Marguerite R. Waller, 2002-01-01 A collection of critical essays on the noted postwar Italian director includes pieces that examine his works from a range of social and political perspectives to consider his motivations and impact on modern film Simultaneous Cinema Studies Susan

Hayward, 2013 Film studies is a course that is often articulated in highly technical or complex critical vocabulary This is an A Z of the key critical terms designed to make film texts and analysis more accessible to the student Watching Pages, Reading Pictures Daniela De Pau, Georgina Torello, 2008-12-18 Italian cinema is internationally well known for the ground breaking experience of Neo Realism comedy Italian Style Spaghetti Westerns and the horror movies of the seventies However what is rather unfamiliar to wider audiences is Italian cinema's crucial and enduring affair with literature In fact since the very beginning literature has deeply influenced how Italian cinema has defined itself and grown This book provides an empirical approach to this complex and fruitful relationship The aim is to present discussions dealing with significant Italian film adaptations from literary materials which greatly exemplify the variety of styles view points and attitudes produced by such an alliance throughout the different periods Among the adaptations discussed are those that have followed trends and critical debates making them at times rather problematic Sex, the Self, and the Sacred Colleen Ryan-Scheutz, 2007-01-01 Drawing upon Italy's distinct socio cultural history as well as feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to film Colleen Ryan Scheutz explores the ways in which Pasolini's representations of women reveal his concerns about the corruption of modern society Cinemas of the World James Chapman, 2004-06-03 The cinema has been the pre eminent popular art form of the 20th century In Cinemas of the World James Chapman examines the relationship between film and society in the modern world film as entertainment medium film as a reflection of national cultures and preoccupations film as an instrument of propaganda He also explores two interrelated issues that have recurred throughout the history of cinema the economic and cultural hegemony of Hollywood on the one hand and on the other the attempts of film makers elsewhere to establish indigenous national cinemas drawing on their own cultures and societies Chapman examines the rise to dominance of Hollywood cinema in the silent and early sound periods He discusses the characteristic themes of American movies from the Depression to the end of the Cold War especially those found in the western and film noir genres that are often used as vehicles for exploring issues central to us society and politics He looks at national cinemas in various European countries in the period between the end of the First World War and the end of the Second which all exhibit the formal and aesthetic properties of modernism The emergence of the so called new cinemas of Europe and the wider world since 1960 are also explored Chapman is a tough thinking original writer an engaging excellent piece of work David Lancaster Film and History Broken Time, Fragmented Space Anna Maria Torriglia, 2002-01-01 Examines how the artists and intellectuals of post war Italy dealt with the shameful heritage of their fascist upbringing and education by trying to craft a new cultural identity for themselves and the country Early Modern Voices in Contemporary Literature and on Screen Ambra Moroncini, Aaron M. Kahn, Luca Fiorentini, Eleonora Lima, Kristina M. Olson, Olivia Santovetti, Davide Dalmas, Gareth Wood, Mark Thornton Burnett, Yujia Jin, Carlotta Moro, Alena Gašparovičová, Victoria Ríos Castaño, 2024-03-13 The intangible power of literature which in Umberto Eco's words allows us to travel through a textual labyrinth be it an entire encyclopaedia or the complete works of William Shakespeare without necessarily unravelling all the information it contains may be clearly identifiable in our contemporary age of intertextuality and most importantly of interdisciplinarity. It suffices to think of the countless film adaptations of Shakespeare's works or of the popular appeal of Dan Brown's global bestsellers, the so-called Robert Langdon book series which has made original and contentious use of literary and artistic masterpieces such as Dante's Divine Comedy and Leonardo da Vinci's The Last Supper. What is more, the investigation of literature's verbiage through the lenses of cinematic and media perspectives has greatly benefitted from scholarly insights into dialogism, heteroglossia, polyphony and historiophoty, opening new aural and visual windows of interpretation and knowledge. With these considerations in mind, this book explores the enduring presence of some of the most revolutionary early modern voices and works in our contemporary time. It embraces a rich diversity of literary genres from poetry to storytelling, novels, fairy tales and historical colonial chronicles, while also considering musical theatre compositions and broadens the scope of research to the world of media with cutting edge insights into contemporary films, TV series and videogames. It presents innovative scholarly perspectives on how early modern works and themes are explored, remediated and refashioned today to address cultural, political and social issues germane to our global moment.
