stormy relationship with The Deer Hunter director Michael Cimino. We also learn of the breathless hustles to finance the acclaimed and divisive Salvador and witness tensions behind the scenes of his first Academy Award winning film Midnight Express. The culmination of the book is the extraordinarily vivid recreation of filming Platoon in the depths of the Philippine jungle with Kevin Dillon, Charlie Sheen, Willem Dafoe, Johnny Depp et al pushing himself, the crew and the young cast almost beyond breaking point. Written fearlessly with intense detail and colour, Chasing the Light is a true insider's story of Hollywood's years of upheaval in the 1970s and 80s and Stone brings this period alive as only someone at the centre of the action truly can.

The cinema of Oliver Stone Ian Scott, Henry Thompson, 2016-09-09. This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license. This book analyses the work of Oliver Stone, arguably one of the foremost political filmmakers in Hollywood during the last thirty years. From early productions like Platoon (1986) and Wall Street (1987) to contemporary dramas and documentaries such as World Trade Center (2006), Wall Street: Money Never Sleeps (2010) and The Untold History of the United States (2012), Stone has redefined political filmmaking in an era when Hollywood and the United States in general have been experiencing rapid and radical change. Drawing on previously unseen production files as well as hours of interviews with the director and his associates within the industry, this book is a thematic exploration of Stone's life and work, charting the development of political and aesthetic changes in his filmmaking. Those changes are mapped onto academic debates about the relationship between film and history as well as wider critiques about Hollywood and the film industry.

JFK Oliver Stone, Zachary Sklar, 2000-02. Provides the complete script for JFK, which details the investigation into President Kennedy's assassination and includes responses and comments about the film and official reports and documentation.

Oliver Stone Frank Eugene Beaver, 1994. Oliver Stone is a master of in-your-face movie making. In picture after picture, in what the director refers to as wake-up cinema, he takes on big controversial topics and verges on filmic assault of the audience to drive home his point of view. Stone's artistic warfare evidenced in such widely seen films as Platoon and JFK has brought him acclaim as one of the few commercially successful Hollywood directors unafraid to make bold, meaningful films and has brought him criticism as a self-anointed sayer of the truth on whatever subject his eye comes to rest. His provocative style has triggered an enormous critical response with interviews, reviews and commentaries numbering in the thousands, remarkable especially for a filmmaker whose first noteworthy film Salvador opened in 1986. In this thoroughgoing assessment of Stone's life and work, Frank Beaver not only uses the rich response to the films to inform his own analysis but makes the case that the director has used it as well There is Beaver suggests a telling symbiosis between critical response and ongoing practice in Stone s emergence as a unique director Beaver explores the way in which criticism has undeniably helped to shape the course of Stone s ideas and filmmaking techniques Everybody Must Get Stoned
