The Coen Brothers' America M. Keith Booker, 2019-05-24 For more than three decades Joel and Ethan Coen have produced some of the most unique and thought provoking works in modern cinema In broad comedies such as Raising Arizona violent thrillers like No Country for Old Men and black comedies such as Fargo the filmmakers have offered brilliant takes on a variety of film genres One of the most distinctive features of their movies is their skewed view of America itself In The Coen Brothers' America M Keith Booker discusses feature films produced by the pair since their 1984 debut Blood Simple The author focuses on how the Coen brothers films engage with American cultural history and are embedded in specific geographical settings From New York to Los Angeles from Texas to Minnesota the Coens capture the essence of real locations from unusual angles which often make the films appear as if they are taking place in an alternate reality In addition many of the brothers films are steeped in America's cultural past from the deep south of the 1930s in O Brother Where Art Thou to the Greenwich Village of the 1960s in Inside Llewyn Davis The Coens make particularly effective use of films from Hollywood's Golden Age producing their own updated versions of such genres as film noir The Man Who Wasn't There the Western True Grit and screwball comedy The Hudsucker Proxy not to mention their idiosyncratic depictions of Hollywood itself in Barton Fink and Hail Caesar This book also explores how the Coens draw upon cultural phenomena outside of film including literature music and television Approaching each film within the framework of Ethan and Joel's overall vision The Coen Brothers America provides an entertaining look at the pair's work that will appeal to scholars and fans alike Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Male Musical Theatre Actors Wikipedia contributors, Screening the Male Steve Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2012-09-10 Screening the male re-examines the problematic status of masculinity both in Hollywood cinema and feminist film theory Classical Hollywood cinema has been theoretically established as a vast pleasure machine manufacturing an idealized viewer through its phallogocentric ideological apparatus Feminist criticism has shown how difficult it is for the female viewer to resist becoming implicated in this representational system But the theories have overlooked the significance of the problem itself of the masculine motivation at the core of the system The essays here explore those male characters spectators and performers who occupy positions conventionally encoded as feminine in Hollywood narrative and questions just how secure that orthodox male position is Screening the Male brings together an impressive group of both established and emerging scholars from Britain the United States and Australia unified by a concern with issues that film theorists have exclusively linked to the feminine and not the masculine spectacle masochism passivity masquerade and most of all the body as it signifies gendered racial class and generational differences Larger Than Life R.
